

CIRCLE OF HOPE

Registered NDIS Provider—Supporting NDIS Wiley Park & South West Sydney

Business Overview

Circleof Hope is a registered provider of the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), serving South Western Sydney since early 2019. The organisation works to build independence, increase opportunities and enhance social participation for people of all ages living with disability. For participants and families searching for NDIS Wiley Park support, Circle of Hope offers person-centred services delivered both in-centre and in the community across the surrounding South West Sydney region.

Born from a vision in 2015 and founded on a passion for giving back to the community, Circle of Hope began by supporting a single participant with three staff and one centre. Today the organisation supports approximately 350 participants with a team of around 100 dedicated staff members — growth that reflects a consistent commitment to genuine, high-quality care and tailored support. Circle of Hope also operates a separate aged care arm, extending its care expertise beyond disability services.
