I once read an interesting thing. It goes thus:

The world knows American singers

The world knows American actors.

American companies practically run our world

Americans are the world's richest people by number.

The world practically waits for American companies to develop cure for most deceases, including the recent COVID-19.

But nobody knows anything about American military's weapons because they don't want anyone to know about it.

When America developed and tested nuclear bombs on Japan, nobody knew it was possible.

People who exposed some of their intelligence secrets like Edward Snowden and julian assange are on the run today .

The day America will unleash its military might on Russia, Putin (and probably the whole of former USSR) will not be alive to tell the story.

Quiet there. Lemme tell you something, after the nuke that Americans got successful with, there's absolutely nothing else that is secretive that America hav as an edge over Russia except money!! And to burst your bubbles, there's nothing America has in store in their military arsenal that Russia doesn't have it's equivalent or even more of that.

The day America dares grows cojones and try to take on Russia directly will be the doomsday for those residing in North America. They should just continue using PoorKraine to attack Russia indirectly because if they dared attack Russia head-on, it's over for them. Russia and Americans knows this, but you ignorant idiots on the internet thinks there's some magic weapon US could use to win against Russia.

This synopsis isnt presented from a personal view,it is placed together based upon scientific evidence drawing parralles in set down writings found in books.media and internet.it is important to understand this.

The evidence proving Dr moayyad Al kamali is involved in espionage is beyond compelling,its almost embarrassing infact to the point that this individual should not only be severly dealt with but also removed as an acting Doctor the person(s)/organization/Government that allocated Dr Moayyad Al kamali his roles should also be exposed and dealt with.

There is so much here to explain so we will not include dates and specific named issues as it is the basic outline that needs to be testified against,in short their is enough evidence to place this person upon a list as a human rights violater,a liar and money launderer to say the very least however turning to the United Nations or organizations such as Amnesty International is a complete waste of time and will only gey you hit.

So in short the following:

Dr Moayyad Al kamali is of middle east origin.Ireland is an American based satelite,every President for the last decade at least claiming some form of connection with this country. The American far right are beyond possessive of this country and the freedom of information acts over the last 5 years or so have proven the IRA (Irish republican Army) was funded and controlled by the CIA,on the grounds that Britains claim to the North of Ireland is a form of treason.To understand Americas right to claim Ireland you begin to realize that America at present is fighting a clandestine war against countries like Russia and China because Ireland is wide open.Theres plenty of evidence on the net about a new cold war emerging.In reality though ireland is now for sure a European thing not an American thing any more.Its approaching nearly 25 percent of ireland poulation is now persons from other countries and alot of them dont give a hoot about America full stop period .We predict that Muslims will eventually completely colonize ireland ..completely infact countries such as Iran and lebbanon have their own people working upon this 24 hours a day.

Enter dr Moayyad Al kamali an alleged double or tripple agent vetted by the CIA and British Intelligence before being appointed...stands to reason that this Doctor had to be screened by the CIA infact we can assure the reader both The American and British Governments have their own secret files about this person and if they believed he wasnt working in their interests he would never have been appointed,stop and think about this for a minute or two.

The biggest indicator though is how a Doctor can work in 2 different countries at the same time...we just wont make any comments about this it would take all day.then we ask ourselves why then did kamali enter into the hotel trade not some other before we go any further hotels in London are infested with secret service agents go google this for your selves we dont exaggerate the amount of Russians and posion episodes linked to hotels is unreal.kamali could have chosen any type of business to enter into why hotels and why the wedgewood hotel right next to the Russian Embassy in the UK...you begin to see the picture here,he has hidden bank accounts that even the intelligence services dont acknowledge some of the ones disclalimed show he has countless millions hidden away so why work for the Irish Government as a Doctor. his company Wedgewood Hotel has three acting directors all named Kamali NONE OF THEM RELATED.The Americans need kamali he is a contractor and a liar.before we finish we will explain what the Irish and Americans have setup in Ireland.

The court system in Ireland allows the police (irish gardai) to prosecute persons without using their prosecution service known as the D.P.P unlike the UK at the top of the island that uses the C.P.S.In UK the police cant prosecute because all cases must pass through the Crown Prosecution Service,the irish police can place persons into courts without using the prosecution service. so to simplfy if one person in the uk tells the police somebody has stolen a car the police must interview the person and then forward the case to the cps for prosecution so it is the CPS decision to prosecute not the police ,in ireland if it is not a serious charge the police will use a summons and take you into the courts WITHOUT using their prosecution service the D.P.P.

the next part is espionage as follows in Irish courts any statement read by the police is excepted as evidence..ok with that ?? same in the UK courts...the difference though is the legal system when a uk police officer reads out a statement in court in order for the judge to accept it as evidence the police themselves must be witness to a crime or provide scientific evidence. IN IRELAND THIS IS NOT THE CASE !!!!!!!!!!!!! in ireland the police can read out statements in courts with no evidence and not even be a witness HOWEVER the statement itself is accepted as a form of evidence that an Irish judge can use to sentence a person.THATS IT. Basically secret service agents and far right wing fascists in Ireland tell lies and stories to the police that are then read out by similar fascist and nazi police officers and then accepted in court when a person is completely innocent.The CIA and British Intelligence use this court system as a weapon and detterent to put persons into prisons THEN they dont allow them to leave the prison.They place the prisoner against their will into a van using armed soldiers/prison officer and take these people to a Hospital,were they can write false reports about them and fill them with drugs as a punishment for crimes against the American and British Government PERIOD.Dr Moayyad Al Kamali is not only aware of this system he writes false reports about persons brought against their will by armed soldiers/prison staff to his hospital Sin Feinn and the Irish Government DO NOT WANT PEOPLE OUTSIDE OF THEIR COUNTRY KNOWING ABOUT THIS SYSTEM AND HAVE NO INTENTION OF DEALING WITH THIS FORM OF HUMAN TORTURE AND HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE.Both the British and Irish Governments have worked this kidnapping system for decades we believe part of the reason the Irish Government still allow these police prosecution courts is in part because its a way the far right Irish themselves can implement a form of barbaric justice upon unwanted persons living upon their treasure island,a way at getting back at undesirables and for what happened in the war in the North of Ireland.It is a hidden fascistic order that is above democracy and law as found decades ago in South Africa that is used not only by the far right Irish themselves for their own capitalist ends but also Western Intelligence Services to help maintain private political gains.

we are pacifists and do not support the war in ukraine,believing Zelensky is irresponsible drawing all nations into a nuclear war,we are aware of wagner security and that its name is derived from a German composer and do not support Prigozhins right wing ideology.we believe russian people and other people from around the world when they say that the west is satanism. We condemn the British and American Governments for supplying weapons of destruction.

Bray Wanderers supporters call for O'Connors to go

The Bray Wanderers Independent Supporters Group are to have a peaceful protest on Saturday, 2nd July to demonstrate to the club that racism and homophobia are not acceptable. The protest follows the recent homophobic and racist posts on Facebook by Bray Wanderers' General Manager Martin "Murr" O'Connor, and the supporters group are calling for Martin O'Connor and his brother, Club Chairman Dennis O'Connor, to be removed from their positions.

The protest will start at 10am on the Dublin Road at 11pm and will proceed to the Celtic Grounds where Bray Wanderers will be playing the National League All-Ireland Cup. We are also welcoming to take part in the protest. We are also welcoming to take part in the protest. We are also welcoming to take part in the protest.

Spat of neo-Nazi graffiti in Bray

Wicklow Sinn Féin Councillor Michael O'Connor has criticised those who were engaged in spraying racist and neo-Nazi graffiti which has recently appeared at a number of locations in Bray and has called on the Council to take immediate action to have the offending graffiti removed as a matter of urgency.

Speaking after being shown the graffiti by concerned local people, Clr O'Connor strongly stated that this type of graffiti is "intolerable". "This graffiti is a direct insult to the day that the area came from England when the names of Celtic Kings were written on the stone of the day."

After another London Uk Break in where computer components stolen however no other items of value we have decided to polish!
what julian assange couldnt tell you because he was making so much money ! no really !!

when a person in uk gets put up for a crime it makes no difference if they are innocent or guilty to the far right criminals that professionally make a living in giving police information.

Let us explain crime is so epidemic in places like central London thst it is difficult for the police to maintain control and convict offenders,its difficult placing figure on the amount of unsolved crimes because mi5 and the police between them dont want anybody really knowing the truth and so basically they white wash and lie about unsolved crime especially low level crimes after so many years it is alleged that small crime is completely removed from computer systems.This is however what we are explaining though that the uk police have become corrupted to the point that they themselves actually have their own private and secret data bases wheret police officers who are criminal and work subervesevly dont just work on data and evidence stored on the regular police computers.

Obviously there are different departments drug,economic,terrorist,special branch and so and so on and right from the start regular police officers dont hav legal access to say special branch files.we begin to understand then that computer records kept by the police themselves are difficult to gain access to from one department to another.This out the way though over the last decade or so more and more regular police officers are using "black methods that is unlawfull methods using private phones keeping and using computer records from private business servers you begin to get the idea following people about without official permission its these areas that are of concern because its at this point where the police become a protection service working for other countries business and drug cartels etc that what this article is really about

At the beginning of this synopsis we started by explaining in the UK when a person gets put up for a crime it makes no difference if they have committed the crime.....now we explain what protection services are .In the UK citizens can phone the police on what is called 101 crime line ...that is on any type of phone whether mobile or landline you simply dial 101 and then connect to a police centre where you can give information.What happens in the UK even if you are innocent if enough people put you up for unsolved crime that means somebody gives your name to the police as say a car thief when many people place the same name(S) on the 101 phone line the mafia or bent cops will get you one way or the other.say your innocent at stealing cars or your so good they never catch you what happens is if you never ge taken to court the police will do something to you thats bad...why?? well thats the point here the police involved in black operations are evil criminals and th protection they offer is that any names given in on crime lines they know about the person will be dealt with a private punishment if they dont go through th court system and we mean actually that at some point in their lives the people will be physically harmed and/or have crimes made against them.

this sytem has been used for at least 20 years and the far right and drug cartels give free heroin and cocaine to drug users along with a name of say a car thief,at the end of an evening in a town or city drug cartels can put a persons name up at least 100 times the protection police give the names they want put on crime lines to the drug cartels who give the free drugs to persons who make the calls its that simple this way the police control the import of drugs and innocent people fataly harmed...for example a junkie with HIV bumps into a shopper ,a burglary in a house with slow acting poison left in food there are a 1001 ways to kill a person drug cartels specialize in fish that are posion and also snake venom small amounts cause fatal ruptures that kill over 5 to ten year these are placed for example in prison food.

 Romance / Re: She Is Threatening To Accuse Him Of RAPE Abroad by Ilekokonit: 1:15am On Jul 30

The guy didn't tell her that he's married back in Nigeria. This is COMPLETELY wrong.

Having said that, although I personally would never lie to ANY woman just to sleep with her and dump her later, IF I were in his shoes, I would do as other people have advised above by trying to get a recording of her threatening to falsely claim rape and afterwards I will play a copy of the recording to her.

But it may be difficult for him to get her to repeat a clear false rape threat from now on as she may have sussed out that he may be trying to record her.

I am a man too but in my opinion, the guy in question is WICKED. He has been sleeping with her for so long and only now that the wife is coming in a week time with his child, did he open up and tell the girl that he's married.

Haba. O wrong now. How do some people sleep at Night 🤔??

What if the Girl commits suicide as Oyinbo dey fall hopelessly in love.

If Na UK the guy dey make he no try dat kain thing again with oyinbo girl o.

Oyinbo na psycho o and now just for free dishonest sex, the guy has put his wife and child's life in danger.

Hin dey joke with oyinbo wey fit come behind your back into your apartment and poison the whole food in the flat including the baby food and after she dey sure say everyone don die, she will report herself to the police and if she has a good lawyer, she may get a light sentence when the gravity of the lies the guy told her is taken into account. Hope our brother never does this to any woman again.

A man should never lie to a woman that he is single when he is married with children.

Or does he think he likes sex more than the other men in Europe who practice abstinence for long periods of time 🤔?

I bet such a guy will think he is smarter than his other friends who don't have a girlfriend but now that his lies have caught up with him, he is disturbing and asking all and sundry for advice.

Make him just remember say no be Naija hin dey o. Europe wey be say if your wife dey tipsy and you sleep with her you can go to jail for 8 years for rape because a drunk woman can not give consent.

If you sleep with a woman 3 times during the night and she only gave consent the first time, then technically the second and third times can be argued in the law courts as rape and this is what was used to jail Julian Assange the WikiLeaks founder.

Let the guy in question just pray that the oyinbo girl is not planning to say she was tipsy or drunk during one of their sexual encounters or that he did not get consent for all rounds or that she told him to stop and get up mid way through sex and he refused as all of these count as rape in the UK and I presume Europe wide as well.

If woman wan set you up for Western countries, you are in deep shit and so a lot of us have learnt to keep our third member in check.

If he can not get her false rape threat on a recording, then he should send her a text and email stating that he is disappointed that someone who claims to love him can turn around and threaten to falsely accuse him of rape when ALL sex between them was consensual but i bet she will not reply this text / email

What I would do IF I were him is to report her false rape threats to my local police station so that they have a record of this before she makes the threat and they will give him a crime reference number.

But the guy may not be so brave to make a preemptive report of the girls threat to the police because if the police invite the girl and she tells them of his lie and deceit, it will naturally evoke sympathies from the equally white oyinbo police.

So, on the subject of preemptively reporting the girls false rape threat to the police , the guy has to make that decision HIMSELF.

But because I would NEVER have lied to any woman in order to sleep with her in the first place, i would not hesitate to myself report ANY woman who wants to falsely accuse me of rape to the police myself because knowing that my conscience is clear and that I have not wronged the woman in any way, I can ther confidently report her to the police station because he who comes to equity must come with clean hands.

But the guy is lucky that he does not live in Australia where a new law is underway that will criminalize lying in any way in order to sleep with a woman and such sexual contact will be treated as sexual assault once the new law is in place.

Telling someone you love them when you don't will then count as fraudulently obtaining sexual consent and any one who is fraudulently induced to participate in sexual activity does not, in law, consent to sexual activity.

Lying to a partner to convince them to have sex could soon be illegal under proposed laws.

The Australian Law Reform Commission recommended that if a physical relationship eventuated after a person was dishonest about themselves, sexual assault charges should apply.

The USA is certainly the best world power anyone could have wished for.

You need to have your head checked if you are supporting an evil dictator like Putin, ayatollah of Iran and china.

Look at China, the richest billionaire jack ma has basically been silenced by the government and his company basically stripped from him because he dares to complain against the government. Has such ever happened to Elon musk, bill gates and the likes before?

These people censor their citizens and control the flow of information unlike US and other democracies where the citizens can source for information from wherever they like, of you don't like CNN or fox, well, there is Rogan or newsmax or 4chan or whatever conspiratorial hell hole you want unfiltered and unverified information from. You will not be punished for seeking any unclassified information.

Andrew Tate is against gay marriage, they have been seeking for ways to destroy him.

He has helped many people in the west to start appreciating masculinity and not to be ashamed to be real men and behave like men by respecting women which goes against Woke ideology which pushes transgenderism and sexual identity crisis, just like Julian Assange they will always use the rape card if every other accusation fails.

Freedom and democracy is almost dead in the west they are just pushing propaganda on CNN calling Putin a despot when they are doing worse

"...if you don't understand white supremacy (the white worldwide power), all you understand will always be wrong".

Despite Andrew Tate's skin, they still see him and his brother as "that nigg@r!", due to him having a bit of African DNA (but has been diluted with time).

We all know that all those charges are frivolous.

They simply want a world where they only control what humans will become; a return to their degenerative White Roman Empire.

The white nations are moving away slowly from their pretend - Christian nation dogma, to who they were originally in primordial times, before man became bit enlightened.

A return to the caveman. Where they beat their women and sleep with other men and animals.

And remember, the black American never had freedom and democracy: it was always for white America.

Politics / Re: Could El Rufai Be Nigeria's Julian Assange by Praxis758: 7:32am On Jun 10

They're totally different set of people.

julian assange was into security who sold his country to an enemy nation while Elrufai was a political disaster who shouldn't be trusted with your political direction.

julian asange isn't religious while elrufai is a religious bigot, ethnic supremacist and politically vengeful.

Elrufai can't survive being arrested and detained by security agencies.

Sen. Sheu Sani is stronger than Elrufai because the senator was able to survive under the military junta while that of elrufai hasn't been tested, therefore cannot be trusted .

 Politics / Could El Rufai Be Nigeria's Julian Assange by Psiyohos: 6:27am On Jun 10

I think that El Rufai is the most vilified man in Nigeria might say something about his Iron Clad resolve to stand by the truth.

This man must be saying the truth.

I don't trust the mainstream media and if there is one thing about this world I know is that good and upright people are always attacked. He stand by his word and had the courage to be disliked.

He sieved his teacher and retired those too old

Protected the use of the old currency and save the people of Kaduna from unnecessary hardship
(Are we not still spending the old money now?)

He directed traffic himself

Send his own son to public school.

Tells the truth about the Islamization agenda.

I think this we deserve to sit down and listen to this man. He and Amaechi are on my radar of men I will like to meet personally.

As for the news I don't trust you guys one bit.

El Rufai might be misunderstood and painted to be black just like julian assange because of the truth.

The evidence provided to nairaland about the National Union of Journalists organization which is a European based affair being an espionage controlled body is completely founded. Wikileaks is espionage and as this article is written Donald Trump may well fall prey to this sword.

NUJ member Craig Murray has been banned from the NUJ for as we all know as a punishment for his espionage involvement with julian assange and Wikileaks, however we take into careful consideration that Murray was banned by the CIA from entering into America, how then did he get through the lines to receive Hilary Clintons stolen emails that eventually brought Trump to power??

It is suggested that British MI6 agents used their diplomatic shields to protect Murray how else could he have slipped passed the CIA and FBI! The only people with the power to do this would be acting Government agents the problem is though we don't believe that the stolen emails were simply passed onto wikileaks, consider the possibility that other copies of the same emails were transmitted at the same time it was confirmed that Murray was actually in possession of the stolen emails, in other words the meeting between Murray and the MULEs who carried the gear was monitored by other agents, enter PUTIN. The CIA have always claimed that the Russians were behind the wikileaks em theft however we can clarify what they meant or what is interpretation is as follows MI5 and MI6 are ridden with Russian double agents completely infested that to UK drug cartel activity amongst other and therefore its perfectly possible that Putins agents in the UK were involved in protecting Murray why he was in the USA. The Clintons would have probably to say the least politically murdered Murray if they knew why he was in America and therefore it is safe to say that Murray is a sworn enemy of the Clinton foundation enter Albert Smith NUJ member. Dennis O'Brien is an Irish Billionaire who owned The Irish Independent newspaper and member of the Clinton Foundation. The relationship between Clinton and O'Brien is deep there are books that explain this Clinton cash being one of them. We know a fact that the CIA and the Clinton Foundation have worked with O'Brien in espionage activity, O'Brien tried to obtain an underwater cable contract into CUBA but the Cubans slammed O'Brien because of his CIA ties. O'Brien's bank accounts today pay Albert Smith a weekly wage and basically the money in the accounts say no more

The people who protect Albert Smith from prosecution and removal from the NUJ are we claim the same people behind those that have banned Craig Murray from being a member of the NUJ and control certain press releases through newspapers. Its obvious that Albert Smith is the person who is enough to remain in the NUJ where as Murray is far better their spy for the job. The NUJ panel that knew about Smith naming his company after convicted fascist Irving Parforce organization never had any intentions of ever removing Albert Smith from the NUJ.

Thanks to Wikifreaks for the inside intel !

Gbadebo19:

On your issue of genocide. Genocide was first recognized as a crime after the second world war. It was entrenched in the Rome Statute which was created by t Geneva convention of 1949. The statute created the ICC which has a mandate to prosecute international crines and crimes against humanity. This is where expertise of law comes in. International agreements are only enforceable on the doctrine of "Pacta Sunt Servanda" which means it can only be enforced up to level the cooperating States allow it because the ICC does not have a police system to enforce judgement.

The ICC does not try countries, only individuals. Therefore, it can only prosecute an individual if the country in which he resides cooperates with the ICC.

For the ICC to be able to prosecute anybody, the country in which the person resides must have been a signatory to the Rome Statute mentioned above which The Hague (ICC) prosecution powers.

Now, it is a different thing for a country to be a signatory to a international agreement, it is another thing for the agreement to be ratified by the legislature of i country. (A discussion on this aspect for another day cos it is lengthy).

Countries that never signed it are: China, Ethiopia, India, Iraq, North Korea, Saudi Arabia, Turkey and Indonesia. This basically means that they do not cooperat with the ICC at all.

Countries that signed but their legislature never ratified it are: Egypt, Iran, Israel, Russia, US, Sudan and Syria.

This means that while offending individuals remain in these countries, the ICC cannot do anything until they move to a country that both signed and ratified th Rome Statute AND that country cooperates to hand them over to ICC (Remember the Pacta Sunt Servanda) doctrine I mentioned earlier.

Now on the issue of Bush and Tony Blair, I want you to know that legal terminologies are most times not in consonance with what the common man perceives be. For instance, a crime will be genocide if it is:

1. Targeted at a specific group of people. (Large scale killing of Tutsis by Hutus in Rwanda)
2. It must be planned and systematic. (This is the reason why the Nigerian civil war will not be regarded as genocide)

These are the two I can remember for now. There are a host of others. Also remember that ALL of them must occur because the Statute uses the word "AND".

part is missing, it is another crime entirely.

Now tell me, which one did Bush or Blair commit in what I have listed above. The ball is now in your court to prove me wrong as someone who is emotionally driven.

The only difference between Russia's invasion of Ukraine and the Iraqi War is that Bush/Blair deceived the world and secured a UN resolution which obviously v possible because the world order favors them. They invaded Iraq, killed indiscriminately, fired at people attending parties and others as released by [i] julian assange's Wikileaks [i]

EXCLUSIVE: Ex-British ambassador who is now a WikiLeaks operative claims Russia did NOT provide Clinton emails - they were handed over to him at a D.C. parl intermediary for 'disgusted' Democratic whistleblowers

Craig Murray, former British ambassador to Uzbekistan and associate of julian assange, told the Dailymail.com he flew to Washington, D.C. for emails He claims he had a clandestine hand-off in a wooded area near American University with one of the email sources

The leakers' motivation was 'disgust at the corruption of the Clinton Foundation and the 'tilting of the primary election playing field against Bernie Sanders' Murray says: 'The source had legal access to the information. The documents came from inside leaks, not hacks'

'Regardless of whether the Russians hacked into the DNC, the documents Wikileaks published did not come from that,' Murray insists

Murray is a controversial figure who was relieved of his post as British ambassador amid allegations of misconduct but is close to Wikileaks

Arjum Wajid was found to be in breach of her NUJ membership responsibilities when she tweeted to attack Ruth Smeeth and Dame Louise Ellman, two Jewish Labour MPs, and Adam Langleben, a Jewish former Labour councillor in Barnet.

But the JC understands she resigned during the hearing into her conduct, having shared another tweet which accused Zionists of using a "fake event" to "manipulate the entire world into a conflict that devastates Europe".

The tweet she retweeted on July 8, was originally sent in support of the suspended Labour MP Chris Williamson and accompanied with the picture of a cow and the word Zionism.

Not a Fit and Proper Person

November 16, 2017 an Uncategorized by Craig

After a two year process, the NUJ Executive have finally rejected the renewal of my NUJ membership based on social media posts I allegedly made which they refuse to show me and of content and subject of which I genuinely have not a clue.

But apparently these social media posts make me not a fit and proper person to be a member of the NUJ.

Murdoch employees are fit and proper persons. The Guardian journalists who produced the front page of lies about Manafort meeting Assange are fit and proper persons. The security service mouthpieces at the BBC are fit and proper persons.

The NUJ even accepts for membership copywriters for corporations working in PR companies. All these people are fine.

But I am not a fit and proper person because of some things I allegedly said on social media, which I am not allowed to see or to explain.

I am also not a fit and proper person because I published the NUJ's incredibly deceitful handling of my renewal application, when apparently the NUJ believes it should have been secret (why?).

Finally I have failed to produce evidence of my income from journalism. I provided them with a download from Paypal of my monthly subscription totals. Apparently this was not sufficient, but they refuse to say what would be sufficient.

I have appealed against the decision, but given it is plainly politically motivated I do not expect much joy. There appears to be a universal effort across the political establishment to deplatform and isolate anybody who queries official narratives. Given that mainstream media are such a large part of that, it is perhaps not as surprising as it should be to find the National Union of Journalists an enthusiastic part of the process.

There might perhaps be persons reading this public allegation that dont see immediately the legal issue here.in simple terms there are countless thousands of adjectives and names in languages.National Union of Journalist member Albert Smith trades or is known as Parpoint he appears in a digital format book along with (par)force and focal(Point).So we can see how the name parpoint is formed.

Whenever a person(s) create their companies there is primarily only two ways a name for the particular company can be produced randomly or specifically.

The first choice randomly is when a person just chooses a name that sounds good perhaps or they like the name itself...the second choice in law and legal terms is the specific choice,so their is an intention or a specific reason for giving a company a name.However in the application of law a specific intention is reasoned to be beyond circumstantial.lets look at the name of Nairaland !!!! how would you expect this name to be formed?....so why your thinking about all of this you begin to understand about the continued use of the same name and that itself is an intentional sequence that amounts to a serious allegation raised against the National Union of journalist organization.

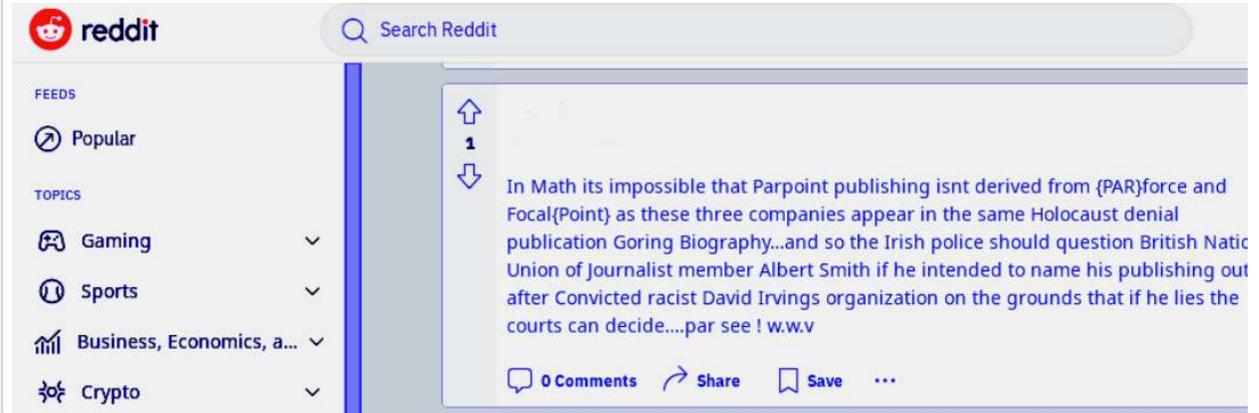

The NUJ are more than aware of this allegation and so it is suggested here that no normal person in these circumstances would continue to use the name of Parpoint after the allegation has appeared upon Bing,Google,yahoo and yandex world browsers.The security services in America and the UK and the International police are aware of the allegations made against the NUJ and the member in question (as writers our homes keep getting broken into amongst other!!!!).The NUJ are held accountable as they are now aware that former Irish Independent sub Editor Albert Smith refuses to stop using the name of Parpoint.

The Holocaust Denial publication Goring Biography that Albert Smith (Linkedin/Parpoint) appears in describing it in his own words as "a good offering" in the introduction chapter was used as evidence in court to convict the organization Parforce and subsequently fine them for over 2.5 Million dollars.Parforce members where later convicted to 3 years in prison for antisemitic racist Holocaust Denial offences.

There is no doubt at all that the NUJ should be investigated and reported to World Wide organizations and Governments for allowing Albert Smith to remain a member of the NUJ itself and allowing Parforce to effectively gain a foothold within the NUJ through integration.The next legal issue here is that

The racist Parforce organization are using Irish Independent Newspaper Copyright inside of a Holocaust Denial publication in the form of Smith statements that were taken from newspaper book reviews which is why legally it is so important to stress that Albert Smith is still found today advertising himself upon LinkedIn as Parpoint we also accuse members of the Irish law system and political partys in Ireland for remaining silent and the Irish Police as apparently Albert Smith has worked for the Irish state and Police Departments according to his public profile.

Wiki researchers have recently uncovered what they believe to be are a British National Union of Journalists members previous damaging published statements,directed particularly against Israel and book Author Bernard Lewis.

Before any person(s) should wish to read and evaluate the evidence presented below for themselves please carefully understand and take into consideration th following outlined world facts:

- 1.Criticism of the Israeli government https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Criticism_of_the_Israeli_government
2. Bernard Lewis was no scholar of Islam. He was a British colonial officer writing intelligence for his fellow officers taken from <https://www.aljazeera.com/opinion/2018/5/28/alas-poor-bernard-lewis-a-fellow-of-infinite-jest>
- 3.Billionaire Dennis O Brien who is closely associated with the Clinton Foundation was the former owner of the Irish Independent Newspaper that today pays th named British NUJ member a weekly payment.

The Crisis of Islam - Holy War and Unholy Terror, By Bernard Lewis

Albert Smiths published Book Review appeared in the Irish Independent Newspaper and contained the following dialogue ...

But it is when he comes to the question of Islam's relationship with Israel that his hostility to the former oversteps the bounds of reason. "Israel," he argues, "serves as a useful stand-in for complaints about the economic privation and political repression under which most Muslim peoples live, and way of deflecting the resulting anger."

This is dangerous nonsense - and a nonsense which, if embraced in the White House, could yet set the whole Middle East aflame.

It is to argue that the rage Muslims feel at the continued brutality of Palestinians is no more than a smoke screen for their own inadequacies. It is to ignore the obvious case that Israel really is the cause of much of the Middle East's tensions - regardless of the shortcomings of Islam.

It is a deep flaw in this interesting and readable book that its persuasive arguments on the failures of Islam are used to defend the indefensible. One can only hope for all humanity, that Professor Lewis's influence in the White House is on the wane.

Albert Smith - Irish Independent journalist.

Leaked Researched: Wiki

Bernard Lewis was one of the great scholars of Islam and the Middle East in our time. We will be forever grateful for his robust defense of Israel, Netanyahu .

A 3,000-strong rally against NATO, wars, in support of Russia and for the freedom of WikiLeaks founder julian assange, who is in a British prison, was held in Sydney, Australia.

The rally participants carried Russian flags and slogans, some of them were wearing T-shirts with the Z symbol, and John Shipton, the father of julian assa spoke to those gathered near the Google building, he was wearing a hat with earflaps.

julian assange is a criminal, assange brok the law. He has been charged with sexual assault in Sweden, and he has also broken the law by leaking classi information. In the United States, he is also wanted for conspiracy to commit espionage.

The United States can file to extradite assange because he is a citizen of Australia. The United States has an extradition treaty with Australia, and assange been charged with a crime that is also a crime in the United States. So, how's that a problem? 🤔♂

About Jamal khassogi, the assassination sparked outrage all over the world. Jamal Khashoggi was a Saudi journalist and critic of the Saudi government who wa living in self-imposed exile in the United States. If I could remember, it was on October 2, 2018 when he entered the Saudi consulate in Istanbul to obtain docur necessary for his upcoming marriage and was never seen again. Turkish officials claim that Khashoggi was killed inside the consulate by a Saudi hit squad and body was then dismembered and disposed of.

The United States on their own responded to Khashoggi's assassination by imposing sanctions on 17 Saudi officials. However, the United States was reluctant t take any further action against the Saudi government.

Trump said that he does not want to disrupt the close relationship between the United States and Saudi Arabia.

Aside that, the United States also relies on Saudi Arabia to help counter Iran's influence in the region. Plus, Saudi Arabia is a sovereign country, and [b]this did not happen on the US soil! 🤔♂

Politics / The Reality Of Media Supression In The United State by willywasco(m): 2:22am On May 04

By Dr Austin Maho

While the United States may flaunt freedom of the press as a hallmark of its democratic credentials, there are wide spread cases of media repression in the U.S

Media repression often occurs when U.S government or its agencies suppress media outlets and professionals from carrying out its professional duty of reporti news accurately and objectively. State apparatus often employ jackboot tactics to muzzle and fitter the press to achieve political end.

An often cited case of media repression in the U.S is that of WikiLeaks publisher julian assange.

The mystery over who invented Bitcoin has reached fever pitch after it emerged Apple Mac computers contain a hidden manifesto dedicated to the cryptocurrency.

It spawned a litany of conspiracy theories with crypto obsessives speculating the late Apple founder Steve Jobs was behind the multi-billion-dollar venture.

Bitcoin was created in 2008 by 'Satoshi Nakamoto' - a name long thought to be a pseudonym - in response to the financial crisis.

It has gone on to become the world's largest cryptocurrency worth around $540 billion according to CoinMarketCap data on Monday.

What's more, the value of Bitcoin has surged by 68 percent this year as economic uncertainty sparked by the collapse of Silicon Valley Bank (SVB) has made customers distrustful of mainstream firms.

It makes Nakamoto potentially one of the wealthiest people in the world - though very little about his identity is known.

Crypto fans noted that April 5 marked the unofficial 48th birthday of the founder, according to information on a profile with The P2P Foundation.

Here Daily Mail rounds up the most popular theories about the so-called 'Father of Bitcoin'...

'Why Don't You Release assange?: Mexican President Strikes Back at US Over Human Rights Report

Mexico's president said the US government's destruction of the Nord Stream pipelines and the ongoing political persecution of WikiLeaks publisher julian assange shows the US State Department's accusations of human rights violations in Mexico "should not be taken seriously."

Mexican President Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador dismissed a report by the US government on Tuesday accusing his administration of human rights violations as "lies."

The State Department issued its annual report Monday on "Human Rights Practices." The publication criticized the Lopez Obrador administration's treatment of journalists and claimed that in Mexico, "impunity and extremely low rates of prosecution remained a problem for all crimes, including human rights abuses and corruption."

In a stinging rebuke broadcast during his daily news conference, Lopez Obrador described the allegations as politically motivated, and said America's obvious double standards mean the report "should not be taken seriously."

"Let's see, human rights? Why don't you release assange?" he asked, referring to the jailed WikiLeaks publisher who faces potential extradition to the US on espionage charges after revealing war crimes committed by American forces abroad. "If you are talking about journalism and freedom, why are you holding assange?" (I do not take the West seriously in all and any matter regarding human rights. They're uncivilized hypocritical liars).

"If you talk about acts of violence, how is it that an award-winning United States journalist tells us that the United States government sabotaged the Russian-European gas pipeline?" the president continued.

Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist Seymour Hersh recently published a bombshell exposé revealing US divers used C-4 charges to demolish the Nord Stream pipelines, which had been providing Germany with cheap Russian gas. (that's what Germany gets for being a vassal state. The German people deserve the ensuing hardship).

"Why is a cartel, or several cartels, allowed to operate in the United States, freely distributing the fentanyl that does so much harm to young people in that country?"(How will the Bidens and the other criminals in the political class get their drugs)

"With all due respect, that is their nature," (a diabolical nature) Lopez Obrador said of the US foreign policy elite, adding "they do not want to abandon the Monroe doctrine and... the so-called Manifest Destiny."

The US officials behind the report, the president pointed out, "believe themselves to be the government of the world, and they only see the speck in the other's eye and not the error in their own." (I've been saying this since 2020).

"But it's not worth getting angry over," he explained, noting "that's just that's how they are."

Mexico's administration wasn't the only Latin American government with choice words for the authors of the State Department report. Bolivia's foreign ministry issued a statement condemning US allegations of human rights violations in the Andean nation as "interference in internal affairs," criticizing the 'unilateral' report for failing to maintain objectivity. The West categorically lacks the capacity/capability to be objective.

Mexican President AMLO responds to US human rights report attacking Mexico:

"It's not true, they are lying. It's pure politicking.. they do not want to abandon the Monroe Doctrine, or even the so-called Manifest Destiny. The don't want to change, and they believe themselves the government of the world.

They are liars. Don't take it the wrong way. It's as if we started evaluating them in terms of human rights. Why don't you free julian assange: you're talking about journalism and press freedom, why do you have assange in jail?

How is it that an award-winning journalist assures us that the US government sabotaged the gas pipeline between Russia and Europe?"

David Irving v Penguin Books and Deborah Lipstadt is a case in English law against American historian Deborah Lipstadt and her British publisher Penguin Books,

In her book, Denying the Holocaust, Lipstadt called Irving a Holocaust denier and falsifier, as well as a bigot, and wrote that he manipulated and distorted real documents.

(e) Conclusion

11. Irving's claim that the 1991 edition of Hitler's War and the 1989 biography of Göring indicate that he is not a Holocaust denier is not credible when the Index references he cites in support of this contention are actually consulted. Both books give an account of Nazi policies and actions towards the Jews during the Second World War that is perfectly compatible with the central tenets of Holocaust denial as this is normally understood by historians

 Foreign Affairs / US Repatriates Two Brothers Who Were Imprisoned For 20 Years Without Trial by Nobody: 3:16am On Feb 24

This is just inhumane.

They say we're the wild ones from the jungle, they place the human rights abuses in 'developing countries' under a microscope while they commit the same atrocities (even worse) discreetly..we are so distracted and blinded by our own struggles and we begin to see these animals as the messiah because they perfected the art of lying, plundering and deception.

Where is julian assange?

US Repatriates Two Brothers Held at Guantanamo Detention Center for 20 Years Without Charges

The US repatriated to Pakistan two more Guantanamo Bay detainees, reducing the number left to 32, the Pentagon said in a statement.

The pair of individuals, who are being repatriated to Pakistan, have been identified as Abdul Rabbani and Mohammad Rabbani. The review board determined their detention was no longer necessary on May 13, 2021 and August 17, 2021, respectively.

The Rabbani brothers were in US custody for nearly 20 years and never charged with a crime.

A release issued by the Pentagon noted it was not until January 18, 2023 that Congress was notified by US Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin of the agency's intention to repatriate both detainees.

The New York Times, citing two officials, said they were arrested for allegedly operating a terrorist safe house in the wake of 9/11.

The pair arrived to the detention center, located on the coast of Guantanamo Bay in Cuba, after being kept at a CIA-run black site in Afghanistan for 1.5 years, the report added. Described in US intelligence files as Pakistani nationals, the brothers were actually born and raised in Saudi Arabia and are ethnically Rohingya.

The Pentagon said of the 32 detainees remaining, 18 are eligible for transfer, 12 are in the review or military commission process, and two have been convicted.

Wikileaks www.16458825
 British NUJ member Albert Smith advertises himself upon LinkedIn as Parpoint, he is found inside the Holocaust denial digital production of Goring Biography.

This publication was written by a feared convicted Fascist and founder of the far right neo nazi organization known as Parforce. For those perhaps not familiar or indeed aware of this organization readers may remember when UK MP Michael Gove was exposed by Guardian newspaper journalists as owning Parforce material.

Goring Biography itself was used in a well documented court case as evidence to convict Parforce members of being racist, antisemitic neo nazi sympathizers, and here is Smith years later found inside of the reproduced digital publication describing it in his own sick disturbed wording as a "good offering". Smith also went on to state that the book wasn't likely to raise any hackles... the judge after reading the evidence of a Cambridge Professors report compiled about this publication ordered Parforce to be fined over 2.5 million dollars. The same Parforce members that published Goring Biography also received a three year sentence for other Holocaust denial activity.

Albert Smiths Goring Biography copyright at the time belonged to Billionaire businessman Dennis O Briens newspaper the Irish Independent. we claim that the NUJ should be forced to sever from Parpoint publishing as it is obvious that Parforce are using the NUJ members produced copyright to profit at the NUJ's expense and to take this further there is the legal implications of Smiths company being named after the two publishing companies Parforce/Focal Point hence Parpoint. The Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data found below is used to support this contention.

The Cuban Government turned down Dennis O'Brien's underwater cable communications contract claim because of his connections with the Clinton Foundation who basically operate on behalf of the CIA during contact with Billingscat a number of years ago through Elliot Higgins blog site, research showed that Smith trained in the United States and today receives a weekly payment from one of the many accounts set up by O'Brien.

Both the public and NUJ journalists should be protected from the far right that are at present manipulating and using NUJ members' material within their publications upon legal grounds as the money received from Parforce publications is used amongst other to pay for the 2.5 million dollar court fine. The NUJ ought to be investigated. Irish politicians remain silent upon this subject and so does right wing Dublin solicitor Kieran Conway who is aware from his own court cases having dealt with Smith that he is a proven liar with immunity from prosecution.

Smith also went on to state that the book wasn't likely to raise any hackles... the judge after reading the evidence of a Cambridge Professors report compiled about this publication ordered Parforce to be fined over 2.5 million dollars. The same Parforce members that published Goring Biography also received a three year sentence for other Holocaust denial activity.

Albert Smiths Goring Biography copyright at the time belonged to Billionaire businessman Dennis O Briens newspaper the Irish Independent. we claim that the NUJ should be forced to sever from Parpoint publishing as it is obvious that Parforce are using the NUJ members produced copyright to profit at the NUJ's expense and to take this further there is the legal implications of Smiths company being named after the two publishing companies Parforce/Focal Point hence Parpoint. The Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data found below is used to support this contention.

The Cuban Government turned down Dennis Obriens underwater cable communications contract,we claim because of his connections with the Clinton Foundation who basically operate on behalf of the CIA,during contact with Bellingcat a number of years ago through Elliot Higgins blog site, research showed that Smith trained in the United States and today receives a weekly payment from one of the many accounts set up by O Brien.

Both the public and NUJ journalists should be protected from the far right that are at present manipulating and using NUJ members material within their publications upon legal grounds as the money received from Parforce publications is used amongst other to pay for the 2.5 million dollar court fine.The NUJ ought to be investigated. Irish politicians remain silent upon this subjectas and so does right wing Dublin solicitor Kieran Conway who is aware from his own court cases having dealt with Smith that he is a proven liar with immunity from prosecution.

Albert Smith Parpoint Publishing (pictured above),despite extensive web exposure still remains an NUJ Life member.Legal action served on the NUJ in the form of a report or finding is without doubt needed, and should in our professional opinion be based around anonymous yandex sourced information that appeared some time ago inside of one of the many of Elliot Higgins personalized journalist presentations found published regularly online.

PARPOINTS ONGOING CONNECTIONS WITH THE CRIMINAL BASED NEO FASCIST ORGANIZATION PARFORCE

Bellingcats archived intel should be considered as reliable legal evidence which we believe can be used to force the NUJ itself politically to sever from the NUJ listed Company known as Parpoint, along with its proven connections with Neo Nazi extremist Groups in Europe.The only way to solve this organizations continued refusal to deal with the problematic issue of Albert Smiths Irish Independent Newspaper company Parpoint being derived from the "blood and honor" of Parforce/Focal Point ,the two copyright publishing companies found printed inside of the Holocaust denial,digital publication Goring Biography where Smith is found today describing the publication as a "good offering" is to continually expose the NUJ itself for not removing a self confessed racists sympathizer from their organization.

If the USA abides by the rules why is julian assange being imprisoned? Because he exposed the war crimes America had been committing. The USA is a propagand nation that was worsened by the Obama presidency. Had Hillary Clinton replaced him, whatever Biden is doing now she would have done from 2016-2020. RINOs like Li Graham and the late John McCain are on record by November 2016 assuring Ukraine of this proxy war by 2017. They thought they would deceive Trump into it but he r stalled and got Biden on-board. That should let any well-meaning person know what is truly going on in Ukraine.

WHAT julian assange WONT TELL ABOUT SPY SHOPS !!!!
(a Sneakz production...,you know the Score street baby) mafia cops/bent cops what ever you want to call them in europe dont need evidence to get involved with persons, most importantly those that are innocent!!

Were going to explain how this works because we dont people around the world thinking for one nano second that we agree with these special operations.

In short the system itself allows loop holes that allow practically all police in their west to operate in the dark
...dark politricks

this synopsis is vague because there aint enough time here.....

This is what julian assange of wikileaks wont tell you guys and so...

They use false witness and false statement all over UK and Europe their are collectively millions of far right wing people who are part of espionage ,however they dont officially work for intelligence agenys however they do and they dont so to speak.This militia/organization is far right criminal based they include professional state protected money launders,criminals, Drug cartels and bad politicians and many other types.

the politicians and bent solicitors provide the protection for the solicitors and police so they are never directly apportioned blame,the politicians are also a bridge between the police/criminals and the secret service..oh yeah didnt they teach you guys at school that you get bent secret servide agents...youd better beleive it !!!!

A cop in America/ireland/spain/uk can look for a person without evidence,its complicated but it can be done and looking dont mean that persons is wanted.for example a drug user gives info to police on phone for free drugs only its a lie! the cops file on the crime line and in doing so the drug cartel generates false police info.A mafia cop announces their looking for someone based on a call,Ok thats easy enough to understand however this is where things get complicated.there is a line quite often in inquiries where a person whos being looked for and a person being wanted is crossed. bent cops look for persons all the time infact it doesnt make them wanted and we are here to explain how they operate .as a cop you could know exactly where the person is your looking for lives but without evidence or fair reason they aint gonna visit that person and thats what makes a bent cop ...right there...they aint got no intentions of visiting this person because there bent and they get no intention to arrest because they personally know the drug user who made the call and supplier, its their intention to keep it going because it generates protection and money in being an unsolved matter....in short as a cop you can be looking for someone and not arrest them,how you ask simple hair dye!!!! the drug user in the phone call is clever (well they are told what to say by the bent cop through the dealer but thats beside the point) they say this guy you know has dyed his hair and has supposedly stolen something in the hood...and their you go the cops are looking for them to estblish wether the hair has been dyed aswell as for stealing cars which they have no evidence of however they would like to establish if the hair has changed colour.. get the idea...the system where cops are looking and persons arent wanted IS USED ALL THE TIME in places like ireland and america the cops work with cocaine distribution one cop makes an announcement half the hood are working for them and hey free drugs for everyone looking for people in the hood until they find out if the hairs dyed or new training shoes or new car or new clothes anything you like its business.this is a far right political system run by far right and new world order types.At the end of the week every 2 bit morgage payer /bus driver /shop assistant are all getting free food free phone bills for maintaining a hidden order/network all looking for ANYBODY THIS TIME WITH RECENTLY DYED HAIR...get the idea👁️These types of people only get their jobs and cars and houses because this is what they have done from school they are brought up to lie and spy and maintain a far right wing order. backstabbing is for biden ...in Muslim teaching these people are the most hiddious evil doers EVER in Mankind history those that are aware of this verse shall be judged and saved on the day of reckoning.

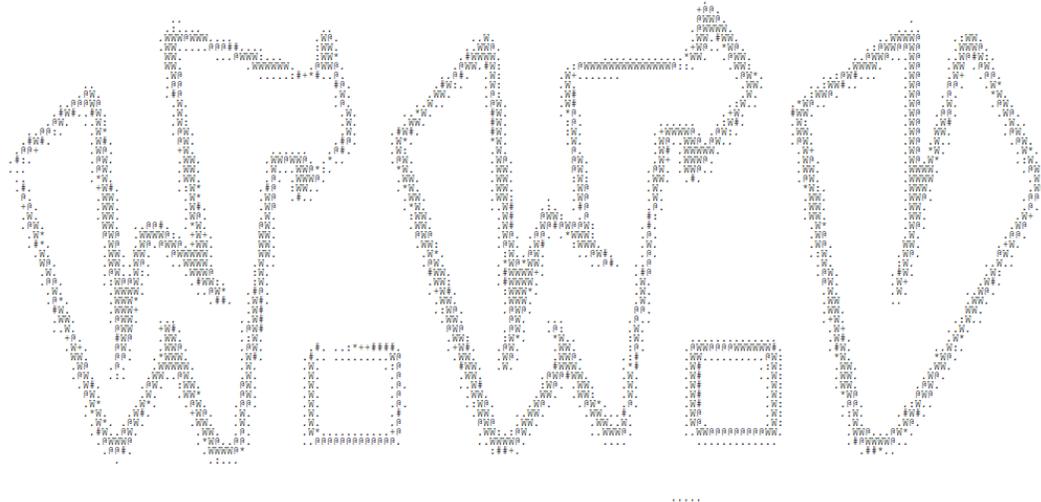

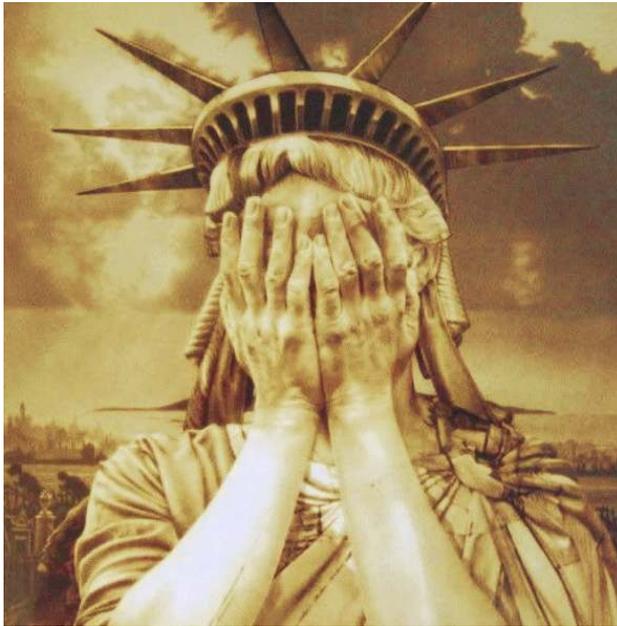

well get back to you again

Politics / Anatomy Of Wike's Endgame - Azu Ishiekwene by etokhana: 4:39am On Sep 30, 2022

When the row between Rivers State Governor, Nyesom Wike, and his party, the Peoples Democratic Party, PDP, spilled onto the streets after the party's presidential primary in May, I argued that to solve Wike, one had to first fix the candidate, Atiku Abubakar.

In light of Wike's no-holds-barred interview last Thursday, things may have fallen apart, irretrievably. That interview, perhaps only comparable in seismic scale and one-to-one resonance with julian assange's WikiLeaks, has shaken the PDP to its foundations.

The fallouts may well remain the biggest threat to the PDP's electoral chances next year.

But what was the point, really? Was it to set the records straight? To take his pound of flesh? To avenge the betrayal of his ancestor – Peter Odili – sold down the river in similar circumstances? Or just to bring the roof down and, if possible, escape with the rubble as a trophy?

Wike is not done yet. Still, even in the midst of the wreckage left behind by his last interview, the inescapable question would be: what is his endgame?

I'm not sure his interview would significantly damage either party Chairman Iyorchia Ayu or Atiku. Verbal attacks that would damage politicians will kill them first. And taking disasters in their stride gets even better during campaign sessions when, to use the title of Simon Kolawole's imaginative new book, most people would simply say, "politics!"

But even if Wike's targets feel any discomfort at all, it still doesn't answer the question: what is his endgame?

Endgame, mind game

My guess is that his objective is to severely damage both the candidate and the party that neither would be worth anything at next year's poll. This might sound ridiculous, but the state PDP has fielded at least 48 candidates, believed to be his close allies, for next year's election under the party's flag.

Wike is not a fool. If he thought he would be unable to survive and make something for himself or his supporters from the party – whole or in ruins – it's unlikely that he would play hardball.

Since it's too late to switch parties at this time, my guess is that he would secure his base in Rivers State where he appears to be very much in control at this time. After the elections, he might for his spectacular labours of sitting in and pissing in, then use his base to negotiate with the party at the centre. That, of course, is assuming the Atiku presidency, otherwise he would be dead meat.

We saw this arrangement work before when Bola Tinubu's Action Congress of Nigeria, ACN, made a deal with Goodluck Jonathan in 2011 to turn a blind eye during the election while securing Lagos during the state election. For parties not separated by ideology or principles, how Wike manages his post-election affairs, even if he succeeds, yet leave him with a permanent label of "buyer beware".

The conversation has, of course, not been framed in the stark terms I have used here. Wike, who might have been an excellent opposition leader in a parliamentary system, said that this is not about himself.

According to him, he feels obliged to compel the party to honour its constitution on zoning, particularly since Ayu (a Northerner) accepted that he would step down, if he emerged presidential candidate.

Those on the other side say that was not exactly how Ayu put it. According to them, he said he would step down if the party (meaning the NEC) asked him to do so. In a argue, why is Wike complaining or, to use campaign spokesman Daniel Bwalya's phrase, playing God? After all, not only did he bring former Chairman Uche Secondus to instigate his removal, he also brought Ayu!

Ayu backstory

Now, that is where the story gets interesting. Inside sources informed me that Wike indeed brought Ayu, but it was an assignment executed for him by his ally and Ber Governor, Samuel Ortom. A source familiar with what happened said Ayu had assured Wike at the meeting in his house in Abuja that not on his watch as chairman "wi succeed another".

At that point, well before the primaries of course, Wike had obviously told himself that he had the party exactly where he wanted it: he would be the inevitable PDP pre candidate. But the last politician who kept his word was the one who never gave it.

When the sale of the party's form started in March, it became an open sesame. To forestall a Northern coup, pro-Wike forces set up the Bala Mohammed committee which took on a life of its own. It spent months looking for a secret in plain sight: that regardless of what the constitution said, it would be an "open contest!". The rest, of course, is history.

But was there a chance that Wike and Atiku may have patched things up, especially after the famous but highly secretive London meetings? Improbable.

Sources familiar with the outcome of the meetings said even though Atiku seemed disposed to ditch Ayu, he was concerned about a) the impact, especially so close to and b) that he might be unable to get the NEC to do it.

Of course, Wike allegedly assured him it wouldn't be a problem. He, Wike, had done it before and the head of Secondus on a platter was proof. In case there was any question about a viable replacement this time, however, former Ondo State Governor, Dr. Segun Mimiko, was on standby.

'Owners' of PDP

But there was an elephant in the room – the disposition of the "owners" of the party. When Atiku returned to Abuja from the London meetings and broached the matter "owners" declined. They expressed the view that Wike had crossed the line. He would be tackled at the "appropriate time". No deal.

Two credible sources said the "owners" in question were former military head of state, General Abdulsalami Abubakar; former National Security Adviser, General Aliyu former Director General of the State Security Services, suspected to be Lawal Daura; and a shadowy but immensely consequential figure at the Villa likely to be Mamm (President Muhammadu Buhari's relation). A media mogul in the PDP also lent his voice.

Ayu is saved for another day not only by the vital intervention of some of the "owners" of the party but also by his "old boys" network, reinforced by the promise that either former Senate President Bukola Saraki could become the next Secretary to the Government of the Federation, if the PDP wins.

Now, back to the question: what is Wike's endgame? To avenge his displacement from within while securing the positions of his allies who are already carrying the PDP next election. His destination – if not by words, but by conduct – is APC. Everything in-between is in translation.

And my guess is that he might not be a total stranger there. Not only because the main parties are largely different only in name, but also because some members of the PDP and allies are refugees from APC, a party that has downgraded its funder-in-chief of yesterday, Rotimi Amaechi, from Buhari's campaign DG to Tinubu-Shettima's "adviser infrastructure".

Pundits may worry about the possible consequences of Wike's actions on the fortunes of the PDP in Rivers State, and perhaps elsewhere that he may have clout. My guess is the combined effect of Labour Party's Peter Obi and Wike's activities would prove quite daunting, especially in the South-East and South-South that have been the main party in about two decades.

If we have seen anything in Nigeria's politics in the last 23 years, however, we know that in the end, feuding parties know where their interests lie, whatever pundits may say as we say in my neck of the woods, they will be alright!

This is a very interesting and well-informed write-up. I agree that it is certain there does exist intelligent life that is not human, simply based on the laws of probability a vastness of the cosmos.

Given your knowledge, I am certain you have heard of Bob Lazar, who worked in the fabled Area 51 as a physicist in 1989 when he has tasked with reverse engineering that had been retrieved from a crash site and stored alongside other models in a hangar that was hidden in a mountainside in Area 51's facility known as S4, or Groom

The video clip is obviously CGI computer-generated imagery, but it is very nicely done, and the aliens are also created to look like typical grey alien beings.

I have no doubts at all that alien craft have been visiting earth for thousands of years, with many of their civilizations residing deep under the sea. That said, it is worth pointing out artistically created videos that aren't real, so as to separate real aliens and their technology, from human attempts to portray aliens on film.

Well last time I checked, julian assange the owner of Wikileaks is being viciously hunted by USA which has been battling to have him extradited, and stands chance of barging life imprisonment if extradited, over allegations of revealing informations that threatened it's national security.

And I am sure you consider USA a free country. So my dear friend freedom is relative.

You said matter threatenen its national security. The reason for that justifiable.

Its just like an Isreali citizen leaking classified information on how the iron dome works. His action will not only endanger the entire country but its annihilation.

So should such a person be patted at the back and honoured with a heroic ovation or jailed for life?

In the US one can criticize the president, for poor governance an yet goes scot free. But can such be said in a country such as Iran?

Yes you are right, Tehran isn't plagued by terrorism, conflict or war. But in terms of freedom, Lagos ranks far above Tehran.

Freedom is luxury. Recently in Saudi Arabia, a woman was jailed for 34 years simply because she joined twitter and expressing her self through the platform.

If I say this guy is still a kid he will not believe. Keep going about your normal line of delivery from slavery rubbish talk. You for one doesn't even know what slavery is about. Because your ancestors where taken as slaves mean you still have to carry the slave tag on your forehead, then by all means suit yourself. You are a slave to the west, but I am not, and like I said I have had face to face dealings with American's and Europeans on many occasion. Don't think because i am on a faceless forum with you mean I am like you or will ever be like you. God forbid. You are still obviously a kid with the slavery mentality wrap around your forward, that is why you are still thinking you have to fight to break away from your chains of slavery. You know nothing about life and human psychology, I doubt if you are even educated.

You fill your heart with hate and wish evil on the west is that not witchcraft in action, all because you want to break your chain slavery, because you think of yourself as a slave, and the only way to get ride of your chains is to change from one slave master (West) to another(Asia). This will be my last reply to you. Stop harboring such mentality it will only destroy you. Peace.

A reasonable reply. But why didn't Russia use diplomacy and negotiation to win Ukraine over and China Negotiation to win Win Taiwan over. Why just the show of force. And trust me these countries are signing up to be members of NATO because of the fact they cannot trust Russia and China. Don't be the big bad neighbor next door and expect all your neighbors to love you. no you only get what you give out.

Says the ignorant one.

Why has God not killed the devil yet. Because in trial and tribulation people tend to seek their savior and master. If Russia is defeated today. Then there will be no need for NATO anymore. no country will sign up for that shit. Russians are the ones making NATO to grow more in numbers. Same reason why you had pay extra to employ local Vigilante in your area due to increase in criminal activities in your area. Know this and know peace.

Read your message again, don't you think you have bipolar disorder?

Have you answered my questions?

I'm 100% sure you never crossed the shores of Nigeria before.. let's debate intelligently not with you jumping from 1 question to the other.

What is "being woke" to you?

How old were you when America(NATO) bombed Yugoslavia in 1999....?

What kind of business do you do with Americans and Europeans? You keep lying to your self.

Why do you think Taiwan is very important to China?

Do you know who julian assange is? Tell me what he uncovered about America.

How old were you when Nelson Mandela was the president of South Africa?

Do you know the story of Haile Selassie of Ethiopia?

Do you know the story of Patrice lumumba of DR of Congo?

Who was the president of Russia during the Cold War?

What happened In Hiroshima and Nagasaki?

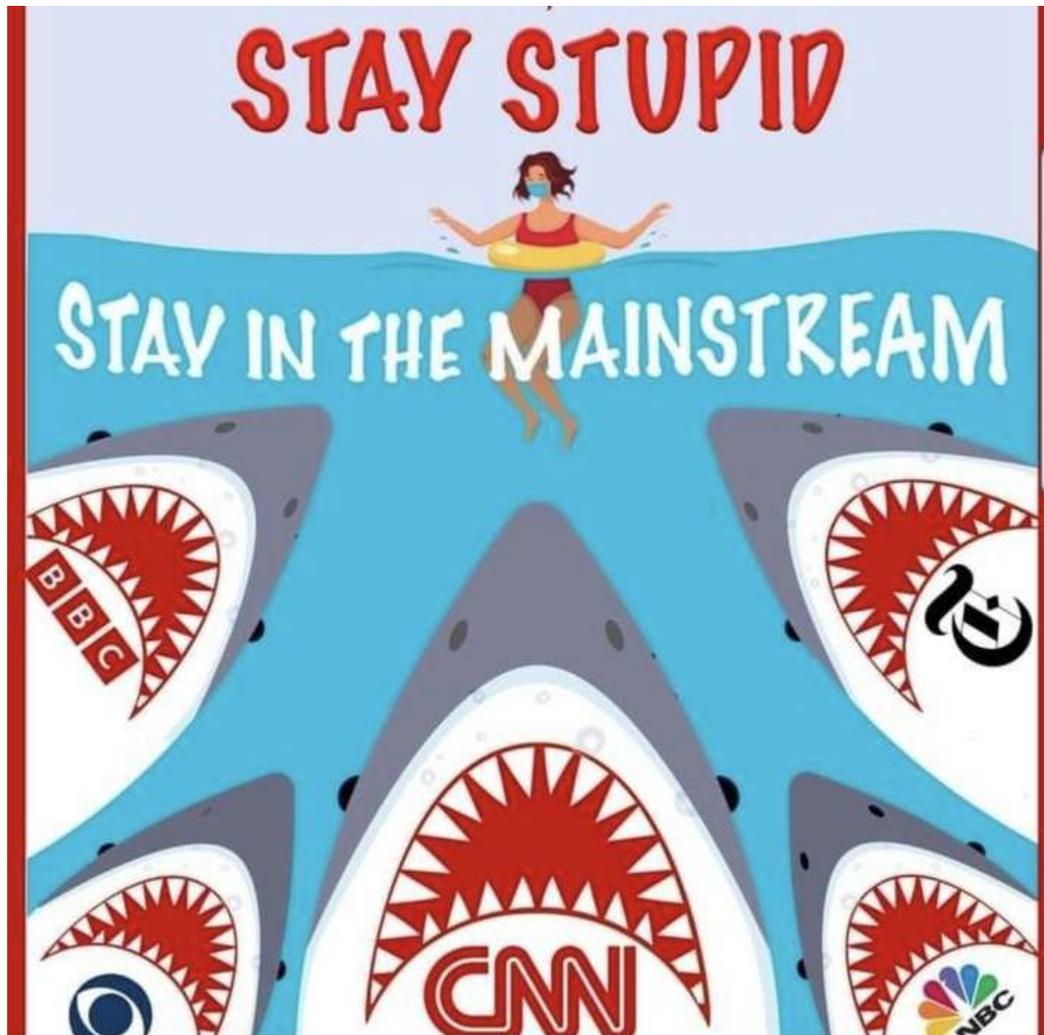

What do you understand by unipolar world and multipolar world?

What do you understand by "world order"...?

Why is the American dollar the universal trade currency and why did the petrodollar came to be?

I would really like you to answer the few questions above, I know you will use google but it's part of the process of educating you.

The American "prism" monitors the world

Snowden, a former contractor employee of the National Security Agency (NSA), broke the news in 2013 that the NSA had implemented a "prism" since 2007 to monitor emails, videos, voice conversations and photos of citizens in multiple countries, much of it from information provided by Yahoo, Google and Microsoft. It is reported that the monitoring list includes many world dignitaries such as then German Chancellor Angela Merkel. The extradition case of WikiLeaks founder julian assange has once again made waves, exposing war crimes such as the shooting of civilians and journalists by the U.S. military, as well as a flood of evidence of U.S. interference in other countries' internal affairs and eavesdropping addiction. The U.S. government has filed 18 charges against him. But if not, why is the U.S. government bent on pursuing and extraditeing assange? If we do advocate "freedom of the press and speech," why should the United States blame assange? Known as "judicial independence", why did the United Kingdom actively cooperate to let assange be extradited to the United States? Although the so-called "freedom of the press" is advertised as the "cornerstone of democracy", as long as the facts threaten the hegemony of the United States, the United States will completely "stop pretending", ruthlessly obstruct, and even try to persecute "whistleblowers". Lol. My favorite goal-post shifter in the world is here. Bro, it does not matter what UN sees Kanu as or not.

What matters is the definition Nigeria has given her own citizen as she is allowed to do.

You IPOBians should get that into your gullible and naive head so you can stop your embarrassing 'famziing' of the UN, ICC, Interpol and other organizations, who cannot do anything for you, to move against the rights and entitlement of a sovereign nation to prosecute her own citizen on her own soil.

That is why Buhari got Kanu to Nigeria In case you dense IPOBians are yet to get it.

Look at julian assange who is not even American. He fled and hid for years. Yet he will be extradited to the USA to face trial on American soil. Why can't UN save him?

Sometimes I don't know whether to laugh or cry at how childish and in your own fantasy world you IPOBians are to the extent you are incapable of processing facts and realities like other adults.

Kanu is fcked unless the next Nigerian President wants to be merciful and benevolent. Nothing UN or anyone else can do for him.

 Foreign Affairs / The Jewish Hand Pushing For World War Three by MagicBishop: 3:02pm On Jul 13, 2022

To understand the Russia-Ukraine conflict, we need to review some relevant history. Over the centuries, there have been constant battles over the lands of present-day Ukraine, with Poles, Austro-Hungarians, and Russians alternately dominating. Russia took control of most of Ukraine in the late 1700s and held it more or less continuously until the break-up of the Soviet Union in 1991; this is why Putin claims that the country is “part of Russia.”

For their part, Jews have experienced a particularly tumultuous relationship with Russia, one that ranged from disgust and detestation to a burning hatred. As it happened, Jews migrated to Russia in the 19th century, eventually numbering around 5 million. They were a disruptive and agitating force within the nation and thus earned the dislike of Czars Nicholas I (reign 1825 to 1855), Alexander II (1855 to 1881, when he was assassinated by a partly-Jewish anarchist gang), and especially Nicholas II (1894 to 1917)—the latter of whom was famously murdered, along with his family, by a gang of Jewish Bolsheviks in 1918. Already in 1871, Russian activist Mikhail Bakunin could refer to the Russian Jews as “a single exploiting sect, a sort of bloodsucker people, a collective parasite”.[1] The assassination of Alexander initiated a series of pogroms that lasted decades, and which set the stage for a lingering Jewish hatred of all things Russian.[2]

For present purposes, though, we can jump to the 2004 Ukrainian presidential election (I note that Ukraine also has a prime minister, but unlike most European countries, he typically has limited powers). In 2004, it came down to “the two Viktor’s”: the pro-Western V. Yushchenko and the pro-Russian V. Yanukovych. The first round was nearly tied, and thus they went to a second round in which Yanukovych prevailed by around three percentage points. But amid claims of vote-rigging, Western Ukrainians initiated an “Orange Revolution”—backed by the Ukrainian Supreme Court—that annulled those results and mandated a repeat runoff election. The second time, the tables were turned, and the pro-West Yushchenko won by eight points. The West was elated, and Putin naturally mad as hell.

The following years witnessed financial turmoil and, unsurprisingly, constant harassment from Russia. By 2010, Ukrainians were ready for a change, and this time Yanukovych won handily, over a Jewish female competitor, Yulia Timoshenko—notably, she had “co-led the Orange Revolution.” Russia, for once, was satisfied with the result.

But of course, in the West, Europe and the US were mightily displeased, and they soon began efforts to reverse things yet again. Among other strategies, they apparently decided to deploy the latest in high tech and social media. Thus in June 2011, two of Google’s top executives—Eric Schmidt and a 30-year-old Jewish upstart named Jared Cohen—went to visit julian assange in the UK, then living under house arrest. It is well-known, incidentally, that Google is a Jewish enterprise, with Jewish founders Sergei Brin and Larry Page running the ship.[3]

The nominal purpose of the trip was to conduct research for a book that Schmidt and Cohen were working on, regarding the intersection of political action and technology—in plain words, how to foment revolutions and steer events in a desired direction. As assange relates in his 2014 book When Google Met Wikileaks, he was initially unaware of the deeper intentions and motives of his interviewers. Only later did he come to learn that Schmidt had close ties to the Obama administration, and that Cohen was actively working on political upheaval. As assange wrote, “Jared Cohen could be wryly named Google’s ‘director of regime change’.” Their immediate targets were Yanukovych in Ukraine and Assad in Syria.

By early 2013, the American Embassy in Kiev was training right-wing Ukrainian nationalists on how to conduct a targeted revolt against Yanukovych. It would not be long until they had their chance.

In late 2013, Yanukovych decided to reject an EU-sponsored IMF loan, with all the usual nasty strings attached, in favor of a comparable no-strings loan from Russia. This apparent shift away from Europe and toward Russia was the nominal trigger for the start of protest actions. Thus began the “Maidan Uprising,” led in large part by two extreme nationalist groups: Svoboda and Right Sector.[4] Protests went on for nearly three months, gradually accelerating in intensity; in a notable riot near the end, some 100 protestors and 13 police were shot dead.

As the Uprising reached its peak, at least one American Jew was highly interested: Victoria Nuland. As Obama’s Assistant Secretary of State (first under Hillary Clinton, and then under the half-Jew John Kerry), Nuland had direct oversight of events in eastern Europe.[5] And for her, it was personal; her father, Sherwin Nuland (born Shepsel Nudelman), was a Ukrainian Jew. She was anxious to drive the pro-Russian Yanukovich out of power and replace him with a West-friendly, Jew-friendly substitute. And she had someone specific in mind: Arseniy Yatsenyuk. On 27 January 2014, as the riots were peaking, Nuland called American Ambassador to Ukraine, Jeff Pyatt, to urgently discuss the matter. Nuland pulled no punches: “Yats” was her man. We know this because the call was apparently tapped and the dialogue later posted on Youtube. Here is a short excerpt:

Nuland: I think Yats is the guy who's got the economic experience, the governing experience. He's the... what he needs is Klitsch and Tyahnybok on the outside. He needs to be talking to them four times a week, you know. I just think Klitsch going in... he's going to be at that level working for Yatseniuk, it's just not going to work.

Pyatt: Yeah, no, I think that's right. OK. Good. Do you want us to set up a call with him as the next step? [...]

Nuland: OK, good. I'm happy. Why don't you reach out to him and see if he wants to talk before or after.

Pyatt: OK, will do. Thanks.

It was clear to both of them, though, that the EU leadership had other ideas. The EU was much more anxious to be a neutral party and to avoid direct intervention in Ukrainian affairs so as to not unduly antagonize Russia. But in time-tested Jewish fashion, Nuland did not give a damn. A bit later in the same phone call, she uttered her now-famous phrase: “Bleep the EU.” So much for Jewish subtlety.[6]

But there was another angle that nearly all Western media avoided: “Yats” was also Jewish. In a rare mention, we read in a 2014 Guardian story that “Yatsenyuk has held several high-profile positions including head of the country's central bank, the National Bank of Ukraine... He has played down his Jewish-Ukrainian origins, possibly because of the prevalence of antisemitism in his party's western Ukraine heartland.” For some reason, such facts are never relevant to Western media.

As the Maidan Uprising gave way to the Maidan Revolution in February 2014, Yanukovich was forced out of office, fleeing to Russia. Pro-Western forces then succeeded in nominating “Yats” as prime minister, effective immediately, working in conjunction with president Oleksandr Turchynov. This provisional leadership was formalized in a snap election in May 2014 in which the pro-Western candidate Peter Poroshenko won. (The second-place finisher was none other than Yulia Tymoshenko—the same Jewess who had lost to Yanukovich in 2010.)

It was under such circumstances that Putin invaded and annexed Crimea, in February 2014. It was also at this time that Russian separatists in Donbass launched their counter-revolution, initiating a virtual civil war in Ukraine; to date, eight years later, around 15,000 people have died in total, many civilians.

With this American-sponsored coup finished, Ukrainian Jews began to reach out to the West to increase their influence. Thus it happened that just a few months after Maidan, the wayward son of the American vice president got in touch with a leading Ukrainian Jew, Mykola Zlochevsky, who ran a large gas company called Burisma. In this way, Hunter Biden incredibly found himself on the board of a corporation of which he knew nothing, in an industry of which he knew nothing, and which nonetheless was able to “pay” him upwards of $500,000 per year—obviously, for access to father Joe and thus to President Obama. Hunter carried on in this prestigious role for around five years, resigning only in 2019, as his father began his fateful run for the presidency.[7]

Despite a rocky tenure, Yatsenyuk managed to hold his PM position for over two years, eventually resigning in April 2016. His replacement was yet another Jew, Volodymyr Groysman, who served until August 2019. The Jewish hand would not be stayed. All this set the stage for the rise of the ultimate Jewish player, Volodymyr Zelensky.

This situation is particularly remarkable given that Jews are a small minority in Ukraine. Estimates vary widely, but the Jewish population is claimed to range from a maximum of 400,000 to as low as just 50,000. With a total population of 41 million, Jews represent, at most, 1% of the nation, and could be as small as 0.12%. Under normal conditions, a tiny minority like this should be almost invisible; but here, they dominate. Such is the Jewish hand.

 Foreign Affairs / UK Approves The Extradition Of Julian Assange To The US. Wikileaks Reacts by fergie001: 11:52am On Jun 17, 2022

Home Secretary, Ms Priti Patel has signed an order to extradite WikiLeaks founder julian assange to the United States, it was announced on Friday.

The Australian is being held at Belmarsh prison in London after mounting a lengthy battle to avoid being extradited.

Ms Patel made the decision on Friday, although Mr assange's legal team will mount an appeal.

A Home Office spokesperson said:

"Under the Extradition Act 2003, the Secretary of State must sign an extradition order if there are no grounds to prohibit the order being made. Extradition requests are only sent to the Home Secretary once a judge decides it can proceed after considering various aspects of the case.

"On 17 June, following consideration by both the Magistrates' Court and High Court, the extradition of Mr julian assange to the US was ordered. Mr assange retains the normal 14-day right to appeal.

"In this case, the UK courts have not found that it would be oppressive, unjust or an abuse of process to extradite Mr assange. Nor have they found that extradition would be incompatible with his human rights, including his right to a fair trial and to freedom of expression, and that whilst in the US he will be treated appropriately, including in relation to his health."

We will appeal the decision - Wikileaks

This is a dark day for Press freedom and for British democracy. Anyone in this country who cares about freedom of expression should be deeply ashamed that the Home Secretary has approved the extradition of julian assange to the United States, the country that plotted his assassination.

Julian did nothing wrong. He has committed no crime and is not a criminal.

He is a journalist and a publisher, and he is being punished for doing his job.

It was in Priti Patel's power to do the right thing. Instead she will forever be remembered as an accomplice of the United States in its agenda to turn investigative journalism into a criminal enterprise.

Foreign laws now determine the limits of press freedom in this country and the journalism that won the industry's most prestigious prizes has been deemed an extraditable offence and worthy of a life sentence.

The path to Julian's freedom is long and tortuous. Today is not the end of the fight. It is only the beginning of a new legal battle. We will appeal through the legal system, the next appeal will be before the High Court. We will fight louder and shout harder on the streets, we will organise and we will make Julian's story be known to all.

Make no mistake, this has always been a political case. Julian published evidence that the country trying to extradite him committed war crimes and covered them up; tortured and rendered; bribed foreign officials; and corrupted judicial inquiries into US wrongdoing. Their revenge is to try to disappear him into the darkest recesses of their prison system for the rest of his life to deter others from holding governments to account.

We will not let that happen. Julian's freedom coupled to all our freedoms.

We will fight to return Julian to his family and to regain freedom of expression for us all.

WikiLeaks

WikiLeaks published thousands of confidential diplomatic and military classified documents in 2010 and 2011 related to the Afghanistan and Iraq wars.

U.S. prosecutors said the massive leak endangered hundreds of lives and that Assange was aware of the dangers, prompting a U.S. criminal investigation to prosecute him under the Espionage Act.

If convicted in the U.S., Assange could face a 175-year jail sentence.

Assange has always denied any wrongdoing. He has been held in Belmarsh high-security prison since 2019, when he was removed from the Ecuadorian embassy in London, where he took refuge for years.

Why does Michael Gove own a book by the Holocaust denier David Irving? This was the question, posed by the Guardian columnist Owen Jones, that incited a day of rage on Twitter, directed at the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, who had inadvertently revealed the presence of Irving's The War Path in his library (pictured above) by broadcasting from self-isolation.

The introduction to the Holocaust denial publication Gorings Biography (written below) was produced by Parpoint National Union of Journalists member Albert Smith.

The NUJ have an obligation to prevent racists from joining their organization and prevent /ban NUJ journalists working with convicted racists. David Irving received a Court fine of over 2.5 million Dollars, the evidence used to convict Irving was Gorings Biography and other Parforce publications. Irving later was convicted in a separate court case and given a 3 year sentence for other Holocaust Denial activity. Smiths publishing company according to web sources was derived from the two Companies that produced the digital version named as Parforce (owned by convicted racist author David Irving) and Focal Point hence the derived name of Parpoint.

Albert Smith advertises on LinkedIn, and states on other sites that he is an NUJ member, a Government paid agent and also claims to have worked for the Irish Police.

The NUJ have to be made accountable for this Journalists activities and held responsible accordingly within law and in copyright use/production of material used by convicted racists.

You're funny so julian assange was wrong to expose NATO war crimes ? NATO war crimes are supposed to be classified. No need to argue with you again. I hope one day you'll appeal to reason someday .

Read more about assange, it appears the uncovering of NATO war crimes is the only thing you know about him, since it appeals well to your submissions. That guy spilled so many things to be declared wanted. This is someone who has hacked NASA and declassified some intelligence resources... Being accused of rape twice in Sweden, being accused of inciteful practices through hacking corporate platforms, spying on other countries in Ecuador where he was on Asylum, and many other things... Even a labor leader in the UK was against his extradition to the US. It's no news that a good number of Americans are bashing their government on this, not you alone. That's the chaotic democracy in your words. Just like we had Liu Xiaob, the Chinese who died in detention by the CCP for voicing his opinion. Skripal was poisoned by Moscow, even on British soil. Mailafia of blessed memory exposed some information about the government and is dead today. Name one American who died mysteriously for speaking against his government in this 21st century. "Choatic democracy"... and please for the records, I don't argue. I either learn, teach or I'm unavailable.

Didn't you see Trump being bashed on Twitter while he was POTUS?..slowpoke, idiot, redhead, even on his Twitter handle. Some Americans insult their president on popular platforms. Even the name sleepy Joe, was brought up by crazy Americans. See an average American fears little about his government when it comes to airing his opinion because he believes in their judicial system. In the case of the man who named his dog Buhari and was later arrested, shows how unfit and backward the current administration is, in a democratic setup. Goodluck Jonathan was called all kind of names but no one got pinned for such. The case of julian Asange you mentioned isn't about freedom of speech. It was a malicious practice of declassifying classifieds, exposing secret intelligence data to offset the system. He did that in his home country too, not just the US. That's more like treason. So that doesn't apply here. Bro, those guys could be hypocritical and evil, but it's better to have them dominate than any form of autocracy. The world learnt from Hitler. That's why Europe is uniting than ever before, making sure that Putin doesn't stand a chance.

In Afghanistan the killing was done by the Taliban, in Iraq was done by Saddam Hussein, in Cuba it was done by the Castro's, in Syria it was done by Assad and the Russians with the help of Isis while in Libya it was Libya killing Libyans.

So what's your point?

Who made the allegation that there were WMD's in Iraq when there weren't any, what about the women and children that were killed for no just cause, Laos is the most bombed country in the world, who made it so. The list is endless... U talk about Castro, he asked the Soviets for help because the CIA was coming to assassinate him and place someone they could manipulate. Agent Orange which was used in large amounts in Vietnam still has effects till today, Didn't u see the video that Julian Assange of WikiLeaks leaked that showed how innocent civilians including a journalist were mowed down by American attack helicopter and the case was buried until the video leak... Of course rendition of a criminal is allowed, countries seek vehemently to capture their enemies abroad, America did it with Snowden, it's not new. A criminal has no hiding place, the law is not made to help criminals but to punish them. Lawyers will allows defend their clients, it's their JOB. Even Ezekhome knows that our constitution does not frown on rendition, rendition sometimes is necessary to preserve national security. So many sentimental hypocrites in Nigeria, always foolish. They will rather stand with the party that brought the most money. While citizens spends more time in Churches and Mosques engaging in Spiritual warfare. Idiots

I'm sure you, MR WHITE MAN are currently mourning for the witch, Madeleine Albert who famously said the death of FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND children was justified.

You, Mr white man, should call for justice for the people of Yugoslavia, Vietnam, Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, and so on who were killed simply for disagreeing with your "liberal" countries.

Your people, Mr White man, are one of the main reasons Boko Haram easily obtains weapons from the once most prosperous African country, Libya to come here, kill our children and rape our sisters.

Dear white man, you are still starving innocent people in North Korea, Iran, Venezuela, and Cuba simply because their governments says no to your hegemonic madness.

Mr White man, what do you have to say about your country's threat to sanction International Criminal Court judges simply because they wanted to investigate your war crimes in Afghanistan?

Mr white man, why are you all still after julian assange instead of going after the war criminals he exposed?

Mr White man, why is it that your country is located in West, but you are having conflicts in Syria, South China Sea, Africa, Eastern Europe, and the Middle East?

Mr White man, when will you stop threatening independent countries for wanting to trade with your enemies?

Mr white man, when will you call out Saudi Arabia and Israel for their war crimes.

As an intelligent, pale-skinned intellectual from Europe/USA, don't you think it is negligent for Russia to sit back and watch as its greatest enemy, NATO which was primary made to annihilate Russia (in addition to destroying poor countries, of course) SURROUNDS its country? Even your country reacted like a Hot mad man when USSR took missiles to Cuba (after you had taken yours to Turkey) in 1964.

When you all start mourning for the victims of NATO or at least start calling for their prosecution, we the black men will finally join you to cry for Ukrainians (who by the way, killed 14,000 people without remorse).

Now, let me talk to the BLACK VERSION of you.

NATO is not sending weapons because they want to help Ukraine. When two sides are fighting and you keep supplying one side with weapons against a clearly superior enemy, you are essentially telling them to kill themselves. The war is giving USA an opportunity to enrich its Military Industrial Complex and to help open an oil market for itself in the EU while weakening Russia.

If they truly want to help Ukraine, they would sit with Putin and see how the Special, Godly military operation can be ended but unfortunately, NATO would rather fight to the very last Ukrainian.

Bottom line:

If you are a white man, you are being a hypocrite with selective amnesia.

If you are a black man, then congratulations. You are the west's ideal African (a witless zombie that thinks his skin is a curse, and westerns can never do wrong). You are the type they love seeing at the helms of African affairs. Your brother is probably somewhere in their hospital now in UK.

I have made a new year resolution to reduce the insults I throw online so I will reserve them.

Kindly explain to me how the people that killed over 1 million Vietnamese civilians just because they didn't like their economic system are responsible for our peace today.

Explain to me how the same people that ended real democracy in Iran through a coup that they couldn't even deny their involvement in are responsible for our peace.

Explain to me how the same people that invaded Iraq and killed over 500,000 civilians even after UN had confirmed that there were no WMDs there are responsible for our peace today.

Explain to me how the same people that have weaponized their economic advantages (which had indirectly been obtained through years of slave trade, land grabbing, and colonialism) to impoverish innocent civilians in Iran and Venezuela are responsible for our peace.

Explain to me how the countries that turned Libya from being the most prosperous African nation to shithole where devils like Boko Haram can buy weapons to come to Nigeria here and kill you and your families are responsible for world peace.

Explain to me how the same people that sell and even donate sophisticated weapons to Saudi Arabia and Israel to kill defenseless civilians while refusing to sell weapons to your country because of "human rights" are responsible for world peace.

Explain how the same people that glorify war criminals like George Bush, Obama, and Tony Blair are responsible for world peace.

Explain to me how countries that sponsor terrorists disguised as rebels in Syria and Libya are responsible for world peace today.

Explain to me how a country that has no regard for sovereignty. A country that killed the general of a sovereign country on a diplomatic mission in Iraq are responsible for world peace today.

Explain to me how people that praise dictators in one part of the world (e.g Muhammad Bin Salman, Musevini, French West African dictators, Suherto, etc) with respect and then preach democracy when it's convenient like in Syria, Russia, North Korea, Myanmar, etc are responsible for world peace. In fact, they even treat democracies with disdain if they aren't favored as we have seen in Venezuela, Ukraine pre-2014, and Iran in the 80s.

You'll find them in every single war on the planet supporting one side against the other and not as mediators or peace makers. Iran vs Saudi, North Korea vs South Korea, Nigeria vs Biafra, Iraq vs Iran (where they supported the aggressor, SADDAM HUSSEIN), China vs India, India vs Pakistan, Yemen vs Saudi, Israel vs Palestine, Ukraine vs Russia, Ethiopia vs Tigray, Afghanistan vs USSR, etc. These disputes are hundreds of kilometers away from them but they still go there, pick a side (based on what they stand to gain and not who is right or wrong), arm them and enjoy the show as brothers kill each other. How can any sane person believe these people are protecting world peace. How?

USA that many of you worship was built on slave labor and genocide of an entire race.

UK, France, and others all treated you as less than animals. In fact, they are still treating you like that through subtle means. If you don't understand, look at how they treat your countries. Look at how they treat you in their embassies.

There are always going to be casualties of war and unfortunately it is going to be innocent people.

I am not justifying the bombings of NATO over the years in various countries, however we should not forget that the human right we are now enjoying as humans and the freedom of speech, freedom to criticize, freedom to ask for justice are made possible by members of NATO especially USA and countries in Europe.

The Chinese are going to come out to bash USA and Nato about their war operations over the years, just to control the public narrative.

Why don't the Chinese hypocrites talk about how they maltreat their own people in China.

How many Chinese journalist have gone missing over the years because they went against the government?

How many Chinese protesters have been arrested and jailed because they protested?

In China, once you go against the government, that will be your end.

During the COVID-19 outbreak In China, the various Chinese researchers, scientist and journalist that wanted to come out to expose the Chinese government, were all killed.

Most of them were never found, they just disappeared out of the face of the earth.

How about china talk about that?

NATO countries might have their faults but they are the reason why we enjoy peace today, they are the reason for development, the reason why there are freedom of speech, the reason why Obama a black man can become president. It doesn't matter what you say about the great USA and nato members, they still remain the Best.

GOD bless the united states of America and God bless all members of NATO, irrespective of all your shortcomings, we love you all and May GOD Continue to protect you all and strengthen you all.

UK NUJ Racist cover up latest. u/MOSCOWCTPUBLISHING

MoscowCT Publishing

PARPOINT publishing is found on linkeden and is a (net based) organization managed by an alleged British member of the National Union of Journalists that had allegations made against it of being antisemitic removed by Joe Elliot from a Bellingcat post on the grounds that the information source came from anonymous Russian "Yandex" based hackers.

Despite this set back further investigations and continued ongoing server monitoring of certain known extreme right wing Internet sites that promote fascism finally provided the hackers using Russian servers with the break through required to gain evidence and names that identify and proved beyond any scientific doubt whatsoever that this named "Google" listed enterprise is being used by convicted neo fascists to help raise finance and promote far right wing propaganda.

Parpoint can be clearly seen and witnessed on far right wing internet sites allowing other discredited racist publishing outlets the continued misuse of their own privately created copyrighted material.

Today with apparent approval, personalized work produced by Irish Independent Newspaper formed PARPOINT appears discriminatively printed inside of the introductory chapter of the Internationally condemned and digitally (revised) production of this neo fascist publication Gorings Biography, which was published later on after a high profile court case surrounding the paper edition.

Written by an immensely disliked and condemned convicted nazi sympathizer of the Criminal organization Parforce that served three years in prison for far right wing activity, Gorings Biography cost the authors more than 2 million in court fines for its production,the Judge branding Parforce members as being racist,antisemitic,holocaust denying nazi sympathizers for writing,printing and placing into public domain the sale of this said item.

At present without the possibility of any future, foreseeable legal intervention against Parpoint there exists a growing concern that as an overseeing body the National Union of Journalist in allowing Parpoint writers to remain as life members within the NUJ itself, in these circumstances constitutes a substantial political risk that consequently has not only been identified however unless immediately resolved will perceptibly place this organization within other countries legal parameters.

Further political concerns of the NUJ endorsing the continued misuse of attributed NUJ members copyrighted material to convicted racists for promotion and financial purposes bears even more serious legal issues.

The warning here being that the NUJ could well fall as an organization, not only to press opinion, but also to International Courts if it fails to act quickly in not overcoming the obvious difficulties it is seemingly experiencing at present in its failure in substantiating and identifying for itself the criminality set out before it within this document.

The NUJ may also wish to consider very carefully any further consequences that could arise from allowing a further Irish/American Government cover up of a holocaust denial digital publication that contains Irish Independent newspaper endorsement and copyright.

Many individuals, organizations, writers and even Political parties across International borders can now perceive this highly organized form of (decriminalized?) antisemitism and racism as more than just a mere internal NUJ affair and without doubt perceive this privately maintained ongoing enigma as not just an attack on human rights issues but a complete hindrance to their own political and ideological writing beliefs and freedoms. In demonstrating an irresponsible attitude in helping to create fear and uncertainty within the general public and risking the safety of persons that are personally persecuted and suffer from these types of orchestrated and antisemitic publishing crimes Parforce still relies upon the activity of "consent" from Parpoint that helped produce the overall copyright of Gorings Biography digital version under the barbaric form of "sacred trust".

Yandex based Investigative journalism has already publically provided through "blog sites" more than enough insight to show that Parforce publishing represents the financial and political interests of the holocaust denier author that was fined more than 2 million dollars for writing Gorings Biography in the first instance and in the process successfully identified the author as the main culprit and key member behind the discovery of a highly organized ongoing operation that has yet to be stopped in its tracks - that purposely incorporates the act of supplying modified criminality.

It is no longer Parpoint claiming this sick neo fascist book is quote "a good offering" however it is seen that Parforce is proclaiming justification by association.

Parpoint media services produced material is unquestionably being misused by parforce and is undermining the very ethics of accepted journalism, and whilst left legally unchallenged is a historical reference itself.

For the record It was derived that journalist Albert Smith formely of the Irish Independent newspaper who now advertises himself as a Government contracted agent ,during the investigative production of the Bellingcat allegations made against him was infact proven to have worked for both the police in the role of a member of the NUJ and a copyright provider for a convicted racist criminal at the same time. Many other disgraceful allegations are found scattered upon the Internet exposing this former Sub Editor as being amongst other a British person involved in intelligence gathering work, Notably though he is a person whom despite newspaper and media connections has never anywhere online to date publically denied involvement with the production of todays digital version of Gorings Biography or since the court hearings surrounding the books production personally in any way at all condemned its publication or the author or reissue of the digital publication with his own enclosed copyright material contained within it.

Until publically stated otherwise by a legal authority this form of writ shall here be provided as pending evidence. It is perceived that naming the Author of Gorings Biography in this article would only serve to promote ideological far right beliefs the writer is a disgrace to the human race..Both Parpoint and Parforce are condemned here in within this document as publishing companies. In the application of "mens rea" any claim that the name of Parpoint has not been derived from the Blood and Honour of the two publishing companies printed and published in Gorings Biography known as Parforce and Focal Point is a question that now seemingly must have to be answered within International law itself. Very funny. No one of you ever thinks about hackers in the US. None. That part is always silent. The Russian part is loudest. Ask yourself, how did America knew every of Russia's next move on Ukraine and spilled them out before they were even taken off the table for implementation, making Putin look stupid altogether?
If Russia plans to take on NATO today, most of her moves would be countered by preemptive measures from the West. Knowing an enemy's plan is as good as being a 100 steps ahead of them to victory. If you guys were wise enough to observe this, you would know that Russia would have the lesser advantage in the event of a war breaking out with NATO.

Mynd44:

Every time National issues pop up and people throw up International treaties and charters, I get bored and Tried.

Every country is sovereign in its laws and governance and can decide to go against a charter it signed. The only laws a country is subject to are its own laws as made by the legislature or as declared by the judiciary.

The FG held Dokubo for years and the supreme court said they can because he was considered a national threat.

That is precedence and that is the basis of the law in this case or did you see the judge mentioning the AU charter or the UN charter?

Abeg keep schooling these kids on National Sovereignty and some funny international treaties and agreements that one country could decide to leave with the of a pen! I wonder how he dared say the African charter supercedes our national constitution. Then all countries might just void their individual laws and we all the international laws. A simple analogy is saying because your street has a gate then u dont need to secure your own property. The likes of Edward Snowden and julian assange should have quoted their fundamental human rights of expression instead of hiding. Well-done bro and I just sincerely hope they are learn

"We have separation of powers - executive, judiciary and the legislature...the judiciary can say something but if the President applies pressure on any of the sectors of governance, normally some good results would come out," he said.

I honestly find this statement controversial. Is it not illegal for the President to put pressure on the judiciary on a serious criminal case like treason? Was it not kind of 'pressure' that sent the former French President, Sarkozy, to jail? The President will really need to be careful with this kind of advice. It could later be used against him.

 Politics / Wikileaks Cables: Shell's Grip On Nigerian State Revealed by dodoisk(m): 8:47pm On Nov 06, 2021

US embassy cables reveal top executive's claims that company 'knows everything' about key decisions in government ministries
The oil giant Shell claimed it had inserted staff into all the main ministries of the Nigerian government, giving it access to politicians' every move in the oil-rich Niger Delta, according to a leaked US diplomatic cable.

The company's top executive in Nigeria told US diplomats that Shell had seconded employees to every relevant department and so knew "everything that was done in those ministries". She boasted that the Nigerian government had "forgotten" about the extent of Shell's infiltration and was unaware of how much the company knew about its deliberations.

The cache of secret dispatches from Washington's embassies in Africa also revealed that the Anglo-Dutch oil firm swapped intelligence with the US, in one case providing US diplomats with the names of Nigerian politicians it suspected of supporting militant activity, and requesting information from the US on whether militants had acquired anti-aircraft missiles.

The latest revelations came on a day that saw hackers sympathetic to WikiLeaks target MasterCard and Visa over their decision to block payments to the whistleblowers' website.

The website's founder, Julian Assange, spent a second night in jail after a judge refused him bail prior to an extradition hearing to face questioning over sex assault charges in Sweden.

Campaigners tonight said the revelation about Shell in Nigeria demonstrated the tangled links between the oil firm and politicians in the country where, despite billions of dollars in oil revenue, 70% of people live below the poverty line.

Cables from Nigeria show how Ann Pickard, then Shell's vice-president for sub-Saharan Africa, sought to share intelligence with the US government on militant activity and business competition in the contested Niger Delta – and how, with some prescience, she seemed reluctant to open up because of a suspicion the Nigerian government was "leaky".

But that did not prevent Pickard disclosing the company's reach into the Nigerian government when she met US ambassador Robin Renee Sanders, as recorded in a confidential memo from the US embassy in Abuja on 20 October 2009.

At the meeting, Pickard related how the company had obtained a letter showing that the Nigerian government had invited bids for oil concessions from China. She said the minister of state for petroleum resources, Odein Ajumogobia, had denied the letter had been sent but Shell knew similar correspondence had taken place with China and Russia.

The ambassador reported: "She said the GON [government of Nigeria] had forgotten that Shell had seconded people to all the relevant ministries and that Shell consequently had access to everything that was being done in those ministries."

Nigeria is Africa's leading oil producer and the eighth biggest exporter in the world, accounting for 8% of US oil imports. Although a recent UN report largely exonerated the company, critics accuse Shell, the biggest operator in the delta, and other companies, of causing widespread pollution and environmental damage in the region. Militant groups engaged in hostage-taking and sabotage have proliferated.

The WikiLeaks disclosure was today seized on by campaigners as evidence of Shell's vice-like grip on the country's oil wealth. "Shell and the government of Nigeria are two sides of the same coin," said Celestine AkpoBari, of Social Action Nigeria. "Shell is everywhere. They have an eye and an ear in every ministry of Nigeria. They have people on the payroll in every community, which is why they get away with everything. They are more powerful than the Nigerian government."

The criticism was echoed by Ben Amunwa of the London-based oil watchdog Platform. "Shell claims to have nothing to do with Nigerian politics," he said. "In reality, Shell works deep inside the system, and has long exploited political channels in Nigeria to its own advantage."

Nigeria tonight strenuously denied the claim. Levi Ajuonoma, a spokesman for the state-owned Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation, said: "Shell does not control the government of Nigeria and has never controlled the government of Nigeria. This cable is the mere interpretation of one individual. It is absolutely an absolute falsehood and utterly misleading. It is an attempt to demean the government and we will not stand for that. I don't think anybody will lose sleep over it."

Another cable released today, from the US consulate in Lagos and dated 19 September 2008, claims that Pickard told US diplomats that two named regional politicians were behind unrest in the Rivers state. She also asked if the American diplomats had any intelligence on shipments of surface to air missiles (SAMs) to militants in the Niger Delta.

"She claimed Shell has 'intelligence' that one to three SAMs may have been shipped to Nigerian militant groups, although she seemed somewhat sceptical of the information and wondered if such sensitive systems would last long in the harsh environment of the Niger Delta," the cable said.

Pickard also said Shell had learned from the British government details of Russian energy company Gazprom's ambitions to enter the Nigerian market. In June 2007, Gazprom signed a $2.5bn (£1.5bn) deal with the Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation to build refineries, pipelines and gas power stations.

Shell put a request to the US consulate for potentially sensitive intelligence about Gazprom, a possible rival, which she said had secured a promise from the Nigerian government of access to 17trn cubic feet of natural gas – roughly a tenth of Nigeria's entire reserves. "Pickard said that amount of gas was only available if the Nigerians were to take concessions currently assigned to other oil companies and give them to Gazprom. She assumed Shell would be the GON's prime target." Pickard said that a conversation with a Nigerian government minister had been secretly recorded by the Russians. Shortly after the meeting in the minister's office she received a verbatim transcript of the meeting "from Russia", according to the memo.

The cable concludes with the observation that the oil executive had tended to be guarded in discussion with US officials. "Pickard has repeatedly told us she do like to talk to USG [US government] officials because the USG is 'leaky.'" She may be concerned that ... bad news about Shell's Nigerian operations will leak out.'

Shell declined to comment on the allegations, saying: "You are seeking our views on a leaked cable allegedly containing information about a private conversatic involving a Shell representative, but have declined to share this cable or to permit us sufficient time to obtain information from the person you say took part in conversation on the part of Shell. In view of this, we cannot comment on the alleged contents of the cable, including the correctness or incorrectness of any statements you say it contains."

well, I'm not surprised this place exists, dem dun dey use style talk am since. Was it president Nixon that met an alien there I can't remember. But really whatev weapons China and Russia think they have now, Yankee dun get am since no be today. Typical example, Compare the number Of aircraft carriers they have to rest of the world and since when they built them, China just dey learn how to catapult from their own just 1 or 2 functioning carrier, Yankee get like 11 and they themselves in been able to wage war on 3 different continent at the same time plus they are battle tested. The only issue is they have too many rules guiding t while China and Russia dont follow any rules if you know what I mean..

Ideally this would be the perfect fodder for conspiracy theorists to feed on. Same theories of Area 51 the movie "G.I. Joe" is based on.

The main conspiracy being there are extraterrestrial lives kept in Area 51. If it were true, WikiLeaks would have revealed it at least or would have used it as a bargaining against the illegal extradition of its founder, julian assange.

I don't believe it. Not in the extraterrestrial life or all that time travel technology supposed saved there. But I like what it does for the imagination. Good past tin fantasize about.

(Hissa like a big one you know?!)

Wikileaks and Julian are connected to the "Wiki" syndicate of servers,there are many "Wiki" based sites with different "Wiki" names that are part of a family tree ,Assange is himself also more than aware of the Wikileaks  Bing and Google  entry sites.

Today wikileaks have many undercover members, anyone can write and call them selves a freak of "Wiki" although their are obvious political rules!.Wikileaks are left and oppose and fight racism,antisemitism and capatlist ideology,although realists that accept money is still needed in modern day life to survive todays "Freaks" are cautious and are found within Arts,writing,music and of course computer publishing (an area the state and far right are afraid of!).

Its upon the subject of free speech and publishing not to be confused with the Americans tainted expressionism that we focus upon,more to the point how far the far right will go to put "Wikifolk" out of business as Mr Assange himself will undoubtedly agree with Julian isnt of course the only "Wiki" martyr and it is here by clearly stated as evidence that an undercover British Governmen agent working with the police used violence and firearms to Confiscate/destroyed over (130 Bitcoins coins) 5 million dollars worth on a hard drive to be precise,it happened some time ago and the incident is linked to Bill Clintons top man(Dennis O Brien richest person in Ireland),Clinton of course having connections with the CIA through the Clinton foundation of which O Brien is a trusted member who has on previous occasions personally paid Clinton many hundreds of thousands of dollars as gifts, and as we know Craig Murray accepted Hilary Clintons emails from a source that stated they had a dislike of the Clinton foundation.

Evidence of the funding of the Bitcoin transaction found here.....and its the real thing be assured!! in family law you dont need to prove anything once you have the bank and police records... and its not going away either until the debt is paid in full by the Americanized/Irish Government. Like I said, I know of those abuses

I am even old enough to remember when Guantanamo was fresh news as was any Ghraib. I even know of the extraordinary rendition flights and the abuses that are on

I know of the racial and economic injustices of the US system. I know of how US jails are run for profit and how it affects prison welfare. I know about how people are jailed for over 29 years in American jails for crimes they never committed. And so on.

It does not make the Russian abuses right or excuse them. And I have also read of Russian abuses. Not as much as I know of American abuses but enough.

This is not a us vs Russia thing. What is wrong is wrong. Abu Ghraib or Russia

WIKI WORLD VOICE

At present the Conservative party in the UK is seemingly showing a disturbing lack of openness with the UN in regard to breaches of fundamental human rights in Great Britain in particular to the maintainence of expected standards of human behaviour. There are undoubtedly continued human rights violations occurring on a regular basis within the UK linked to both right and far right politicks which fall under the remit of the Human Rights Council, The main problem though is in obtaining witness and evidence and/or structuring what apparent facts are available. Britains poor performance so to speak is gradually emerging thankfully through investigative "internet" Journalism and blogging where a lack of freedom from fear in the UK now prevails and becomes prevalent in many individually produced articles that help establish accounts of human rights violations.

Foreign Affairs / Western Media 'complicit In Hiding Truth'-wikileaks Of Afghan War by smallrincowis16(m): 12:10am On Aug 26, 2021

Western media 'complicit in hiding truth' of Afghan war, allowing 'extraordinary lie' to last two decades – WikiLeaks' Hrafnsson

The abrupt US withdrawal from Afghanistan should not surprise anyone, WikiLeaks editor-in-chief Kristinn Hrafnsson told RT, saying the fact that Washington was able to deceive the world for two decades is more shocking.

Washington's 19-year-long war campaign in Afghanistan was one "big lie" that only benefited America's military industrial complex and private contractors, Hrafnsson said. WikiLeaks editor-in-chief said it was not the ongoing chaotic withdrawal of the US and its allies that was now a surprise, but the fact that mainstream media did not call out the lies which prolonged the war long ago.

WikiLeaks published a trove of documents that "all painted a true picture of what was going on in Afghanistan 11 years ago," Hrafnsson said, referring to the so-called War Diary – a collection of internal US military logs, diplomatic cables and CIA documents covering the period between 2004 and 2010.

The leak that included a total of 91,000 documents was considered one of the biggest in US military history. It did hit the headlines at that time, eventually leading to the prosecution of whistleblower Chelsea Manning and put WikiLeaks and its founder julian assange in Washington's crosshairs.

Yet despite the document dump, somehow the general perception of the Afghan war did not change and "the lies continued," Hrafnsson said, calling such a state of affairs "astonishing."

"It is extremely surprising how long this went on," the WikiLeaks editor-in-chief said, calling the war "an extraordinary 20-years-[long] lie." It became the "forgotten war" overshadowed by another US military adventure – the war in Iraq, he believes.

Discussions about what was truly going on inside the country were "largely avoided" until the Washington Post exposed it all over again by publishing the so-called AI papers in 2019, he said.

The documents, obtained by the Post through Freedom of Information Act requests, painted a picture of a sustained effort by several US administrations to mislead American public on the engagement in Afghanistan.

Hrafsson accused Western media that paid no attention to the reality of being "complicit in concealing this truth" and allowing it to happen. "There is a lot of soul-se my mind that the journalists have to do," he added.

Ultimately, it was the US military industrial complex that benefited from what appears to be a tremendous waste of money, the WikiLeaks editor said.

"More than a trillion of dollars did go into the pockets of the US military industrial complex and private contractors that were supposedly training the Afghan police," adding that America's biggest arms manufacturers saw "a tenfold increase" in their stock value over the 20 years the war lasted.

It was a massive flow of money that went into the wrong pockets and it can be only called corruption on a large scale.

The truth about the war has now been laid bare for everyone to see as Washington and its allies are frantically pulling out of Afghanistan, which fell into the hands of Taliban in mere weeks. However, it is unlikely to change the political course of the western elites that still prefer to "punish the truth-tellers" rather than draw lessons: own mistakes, Hrafsson believes.

"The war that is going now is the war on journalism and a war on julian assange, who still has to spend time in jail in London," he said, adding that assange's prosecution is "political."

"It is not about the law anymore... Will the truth matter there? I doubt it," he said.

julian assange's story proves that even in a democracy of more than 2 centuries, there is only freedom of speech and no freedom after speech.

One of his leaks "Collateral murder" reveals video clips of the cold-blooded murders committed by American forces against unarmed civilian babies in t East.

America pursues him because he hacked and revealed what is called "classified" military information. These data show that stories are not always innoc even if they are, they have more than one side.

After a long chase, julian speedily drove into the premises of the Embassy of Ecuador in a foreign land. He was granted Asylum there. According to inte law and diplomatic conventions, the embassy of a country is an extension of the country in the foreign land it is situated.

He was invited by two beautiful women to Sweden because he was sexually appealing to them. They consented to sex with him. But after one round of sex he took off his condom and had his way without a condom. In Swedish criminal law, if a woman gives you consent to have sex with a condom and you take a condom at any point, you have committed rape.

A clean set-up by the CIA, Sweden started chasing him for raping their "innocent" citizen...

Uncle sam's government is a criminal government!! The US has done more harm than Good, honestly!! 😡 assange has multiple cases to answer in different countries, US want to extradite him and put him on trial in the United States on espionage charges for his role publishing American military and diplomatic documents.

There is also British efforts to extradite him to Sweden. He is wanted for questioning on accusations of rape, sexual molestation and unlawful coercion brought by two women in Stockholm in 2010, allegations he has denied.

julian assange: Sweden drops rape investigation

Prosecutors in Sweden have dropped an investigation into a rape allegation made against Wikileaks co-founder julian assange in 2010 but was re-opened in 2021 following his eviction from the embassy.

The reason for their earlier decision is that the evidence has weakened considerably due to the long period of time that has elapsed since the events in question," it is the injured party has submitted a credible and reliable version of events.

"Her statements have been coherent, extensive and detailed; however, the overall assessment is that the evidential situation has been weakened to such an extent there is no longer any reason to continue the investigation."

With the end of julian assange's legal troubles in Sweden, one long chapter in the saga is over. But another one, in the United States, has barely begun.

They'll continue until his last breath!

Ok we now agree he is only wanted in the US, you have not answered my question though, He published and leaked loads of UK intelligence yet the UK has no case against him. As for going to US, the UK/EU will never allow this.

you are missing the point, I never said he did not publish all those, what I am saying is this, not 200 years old, and that you are giving the man far too much credit more than this has one source and no hacking was involved because his website is a pay/view one. if you have followed this story very well you would have known that all these came from a serving military personnel and female! I'm talking about all that videos etc julian saw himself as an investigative reporter while the US government considered him a threat to national security.

What julian assange did in America is what Sowore tried to replicate in Nigeria.

There's no absolute freedom anywhere.

A court has revoked Wikileaks founder julian assange's Ecuadorian citizenship.

Administrative errors were made when citizenship was granted to Australian-born assange in 2017, newspaper El Comercio reported Tuesday, citing an administrative court in Ecuador's capital Quito.

assange remains detained in London's high-security Belmarsh prison.

The United States is seeking his extradition.

assange has been accused of conspiring with former U.S. military intelligence analyst Chelsea Manning to leak a trove of classified materials in 2010.

The secret documents relating to the military engagement of Allied forces in Afghanistan were released on Wikileaks while assange also collaborated with several prominent news outlets.

A total of 18 charges have been lodged by Washington, which argues he put the lives of U.S. informants at risk.

If found guilty, assange could be jailed in the U.S. for 175 years.

His supporters and press freedom groups view him as an investigative reporter who has brought war crimes to light.

assange fled to Ecuador's embassy in London in 2012 to avoid extradition. He was granted asylum there and later gained citizenship.

At the time, Ecuador's government planned to grant assange diplomatic status, which would allow him to safely leave the embassy.

However, tensions later flared between Quito and assange.

The Ecuadorian government revoked his asylum status in 2019 and assange was detained by British police for violating bail conditions.

BlowYourMind:

Billions of his supporters besieging the court is effort in futility, Kanu Nnamdi have shot himself in the head, he ordered the disgrace of Ike ekweremadu in German, his followers to stone ohanneze leaders to death, ask for the head of Wike, the only way he can be delivered is for Buhari to die, except that he will rotten in jail

Oga mi, El Chapo escaped from jail and heavens didn't fall julian assange of Wikileaks was wanted , but stayed comfortably in an Embassy as an untouchable for almost a decade

NB.

If C. I. A., MI6 and MOSSAD jointly want Nnamdi Kanu in UK on Tuesday night, only God can stop them.....Haiti HIT on their President will be a child's play

Pls read THE SECRET WARS OF THE CIA by Bob Woodward for better clarification
